Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Under the Programme, National Express Group PLC (the “Issuer”) may from time to time issue notes (the “Notes”) guaranteed by West Midlands Travel Limited (the “Guarantor”) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below).

In the case of any Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market within the European Economic Area or offered to the public in a Member State of the European Economic Area in circumstances which would otherwise require the publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Directive (as defined below), the minimum denomination shall be €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency as at the date of issue of such Notes).

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”), in its capacity as United Kingdom competent authority for the purposes of Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU, the “Prospectus Directive”) and the relevant implementing measures in the United Kingdom (the “UK Listing Authority”), as a base prospectus in accordance with Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and relevant implementing measures in the United Kingdom for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issue of Notes issued under the Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the “Programme”) described in this Base Prospectus during the period of twelve months after the date hereof. Applications have been made for the Notes to be admitted during the period of twelve months after the date hereof to listing on the official list of the UK Listing Authority (the “Official List”) and to trading on the Regulated Market of the London Stock Exchange plc (the “London Stock Exchange”). The Regulated Market is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (2004/39/EC) (“MIFID”).

The Issuer has been assigned a rating of Baa3 from Moody’s Investors Service Ltd. (“Moody’s”) and BBB- from Fitch Ratings Ltd. (“Fitch”). Each of Moody’s and Fitch is established in the European Union and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended, the “CRA Regulation”). A Series (as defined below) of Notes issued under the Programme may also be rated or unrated. Where a Series of Notes is rated, any such rating will be specified in the relevant Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Issuer. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Investing in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. The principal risk factors that may affect the abilities of the Issuer and the Guarantor to fulfil their respective obligations under the Notes are discussed under “Risk Factors” on pages 6 to 19 of this Base Prospectus.

To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Issuer (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

The Guarantor accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms, excluding the information set forth under “Description of the Issuer” on pages 72 to 83 and item (i) under “1. Authorisation”, the first paragraph under “4. Legal and Arbitration Proceedings” and the first paragraph under “5. Significant/Material Adverse Change” set forth under “General Information” on page 91 (the “WMTL Information”), and to the best of the knowledge of the Guarantor (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in the WMTL Information is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Each Tranche (as defined herein) of Notes will be issued on the terms set out herein under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” (the “Conditions”) as completed by a document specific to such Tranche called final terms (the “Final Terms”) or in a separate prospectus specific to such Tranche (the “Drawdown Prospectus”) as described under “Final Terms, Supplements and Drawdown Prospectuses” below. In the case of a Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus, each reference in this Base Prospectus to information being specified or identified in the relevant Final Terms shall be read and construed as a reference to such information being specified or identified in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus unless the context requires otherwise. This Base Prospectus must be read and construed together with any amendments or supplements hereto and with any documents incorporated by reference herein and, in relation to any Tranche of Notes which is the subject of Final Terms, must be read and construed together with the relevant Final Terms.

No person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained or incorporated by reference in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus and, if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Dealer.

None of the Dealers, the Trustee and any of their respective affiliates have authorised the whole or any part of this Base Prospectus and none of them makes any representation or warranty or undertaking (express or implied) or accepts any responsibility or liability as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus.

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Note shall, in any circumstances, create any implication that the information contained in this Base Prospectus is true subsequent to the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that there has been no adverse change, or any event reasonably likely to involve any adverse change, in the prospects or financial or trading position of the Issuer or the Guarantor since the date thereof or, if later, the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct at any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. None of the Issuer, the Guarantor and any of the Dealers represent that this document may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Dealer which would permit a public offering of any Notes, or distribution of this document, in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations, and the Dealers have represented that all offers and sales by them will be made on the same terms.

Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms come, are required by the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. For a description of certain restrictions on offers, sales and deliveries of Notes and on the distribution of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms and other offering material relating to the Notes, see “Subscription and Sale”. In particular, the Notes and the Guarantee (as defined below) have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities

Act of 1933 (as amended, the “Securities Act”) and will include Notes in bearer form that are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Final Terms constitutes an offer or an invitation to subscribe for or purchase any Notes and should not be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Dealers or any of them that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms should subscribe for or purchase any Notes. Each recipient of this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms shall be taken to have made its own investigation and appraisal of the condition (financial or otherwise) of the Issuer and the Guarantor.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of an investment in the Notes in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the relevant Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the relevant Notes, including Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the currency in which the potential investor's financial activities are principally denominated;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of any relevant indices and financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

In the case of any Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market within the European Economic Area or offered to the public in a Member State of the European Economic Area in circumstances which would otherwise require the publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Directive, the minimum specified denomination shall be €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency as at the date of issue of such Notes).

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding and guaranteed at anyone time under the Programme will not exceed £1,000,000,000 (and for this purpose, any Notes denominated in another currency shall be converted into pounds sterling at the date of the agreement to issue such Notes (calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Dealer Agreement)). The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding and guaranteed at any one time under the Programme may be increased from time to time, subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Dealer Agreement as defined under “Subscription and Sale”.

In this Base Prospectus, unless otherwise specified, references to a “Member State” are references to a Member State of the European Union, references to “U.S.$”, “U.S. dollars” or “dollars” are to United States dollars, references to “EUR”, “euro” or “€” are to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European Economic and Monetary Union, and as defined in Article 2 of Council Regulation (EC) No 947/98 of 3 May 1999 on the introduction of the euro, as amended, references to “sterling”, “pounds sterling” or “£” are to the currency of the United Kingdom and references to “CAD” are to Canadian dollars.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilising Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilising Manager(s)) may over allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment shall be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should consider carefully the risks set forth below and the other information contained in this Base Prospectus prior to making any investment decision with respect to the Notes. Each of the risks highlighted below could have a material adverse effect on the business, operations, financial condition or prospects of the Issuer and the Guarantor which, in turn, could affect their ability to fulfil their respective obligations under the Notes. In addition, each of the risks highlighted below could adversely affect the trading price of the Notes or the rights of investors under the Notes and, as a result, investors could lose some or all of their investment.

Prospective investors should note that the risks described below are not the only risks the Issuer and Guarantor face. The Issuer and the Guarantor have only described those risks in connection with the Notes and their ability to fulfil their respective obligations under them which they consider to be material. There may be additional risks that the Issuer and the Guarantor currently consider not to be material or of which they are not currently aware, and any of these risks could have the effects set forth above.

Prospective investors should read the entire Base Prospectus, together with the documents incorporated by reference herein. Words and expressions defined in the “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this section.

Investing in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. Prospective investors should consider, among other things, the following:

Risks Relating to the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Group

Failure by the Group to maintain certain financial ratios set out in the Facility (as defined below) could result in an event of default under the Facility

The Group is dependent on maintaining certain financial ratios in order to comply with its banking covenants in the £416,000,000 Sterling Revolving Credit Facility dated 27 November 2014 (the “Facility”). These financial ratios relate to the ratio of the Group’s net debt to its earnings before exceptional items, interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (“EBITDA”) and the ratio of the Group’s net interest to its EBITDA. The Group is currently in compliance with its banking covenants which were last tested as at 30 June 2016 and the board of directors of the Issuer (the “Board”) believes that the Group will continue to maintain appropriate levels of covenant headroom for at least the next 12 to 18 months.

There can be no certainty that in the longer term the Group will be able to maintain the required financial ratios in order to comply with its banking covenants. In particular, the ability of the Group to maintain these financial ratios may depend on matters that are either wholly or partly outside the Group’s control, including the results of ongoing operations. In these circumstances, the Group would need to seek to agree with its lenders an extension or deferral of these covenants or a waiver of any such covenant breach. However, there can be no certainty that the lending banks under the Facility would in these circumstances agree to an extension or deferral of the Group’s banking covenants or a waiver of any likely breach of these covenants.

In the event of any breach of the Group’s banking covenants, the Group’s lending banks would be entitled to call an event of default under the Facility and, as a result of cross-default provisions, default may also arise in respect of certain other financial indebtedness of the Group, including the Notes. In these circumstances, the lending banks under the Facility would be permitted to exercise certain rights, including the right to cancel the Facility, accelerate the payment of sums owing under the Facility, enforce any security and guarantees granted by the Issuer and certain other members of the Group, and initiate insolvency or similar proceedings against the Issuer and any Group companies which have granted such security and/or guarantees in connection with the Facility. Any of these steps could, whether singularly or in aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Group. In such circumstances the Group may be unable to continue trading.

Bid assumptions on the part of the Group may prove to be incorrect

Much of the Group's business is secured through winning new contracts, particularly in connection with its Rail division, and also its bus and coach businesses outside of the UK. An inherent risk in contract bidding is that bid assumptions might prove to be incorrect; for example, in the UK rail business, if underlying economic growth proves to be lower than anticipated or if UK government policy changes to restrict the Group's ability to set fares in line with bid assumptions (as has happened recently with the UK government's restriction of regulated fare increases to the rate of Retail Price Index), passenger revenue is likely to be negatively impacted. If any of the Group's significant bid assumptions, including estimated costs of contract mobilisation, prove to be incorrect, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Where possible, the Group will seek to recover lost profits through enforcement of its contractual rights and/or negotiation with awarding authorities or other stakeholders, although the extent to which these measures will be successful cannot be guaranteed.

The Group relies on the ability of management to successfully implement initiatives and other organisational changes designed to increase operating efficiencies and improve results of operations

To reflect changing economic, market and technological conditions, from time-to-time management undertakes initiatives and other organisational changes designed to increase operating efficiencies and improve results of operations. Undertaking such initiatives and organisational changes can create uncertainty and increase the Group's financial risk, and the Group relies on the ability of management to implement these initiatives successfully in order to mitigate such uncertainty and risk and to increase operating efficiencies and improve its results of operations. In addition, should the Group contemplate any disposals as part of such initiatives or organisational changes, there can be no assurance that the Group will be able to anticipate all associated organisational and separation issues. If the Group's management is unable to implement such initiatives and organisational changes successfully, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The continuing financial viability of certain of the Group's contract-based businesses is dependent on maintaining a minimum number of contracts

Certain of the Group's contract-based businesses, particularly its North American school bus business and its Spanish coach business, need to maintain a minimum number of contracts (such minimum number being dependent on the size of contracts obtained) in order to justify the overheads of running those businesses.

In Spain, the concession renewal process for the awarding of national, intercity contracts has changed, and the new framework under which tenders are to be conducted includes a number of features which could result either in the loss of contracts by National Express or in a significant reduction in profitability on retention. Around one-third of National Express' revenues in Spain are generated from national, intercity coach contracts, and the vast majority of these contracts are due to be re-tendered in the next five years. The Spanish long distance coach concession renewal process continues to experience delays, and with the most recent Spanish general election of June 2016 still not delivering a conclusive result, there is a possibility of further delays. There is a risk that when the long distance coach contracts operated by National Express in Spain come to be re-tendered the business may not retain a number of key contracts, or that contracts are secured on less favourable terms, which could significantly impact its revenues and profitability from 2018.

If the Group is unable to bid competitively for new contracts, or if the Group is unable to maintain appropriate relationships with key stakeholders by, among other things, maintaining high standards of passenger service and satisfaction, such contract-based businesses may not be able to retain their existing scale of operations. This would result in a negative impact on the relevant business' cost assumptions and profitability thereby having a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's UK Coach business is dependent on a number of third party operators

The Group's coach division ("UK Coach") business is dependent on the outsourcing of the operation of the majority of its services to third parties. Whilst the Group contractually regulates the performance of these third party services, it can only exercise limited control over many of these third party operators' day-to-day actions and is reliant on them to perform their services in accordance with the terms of their contracts and UK law, which increases its vulnerability to problems with the services they provide. The Group may not be successful in recovering any losses which result from the failure of third party operators to comply with their contractual obligations to the Group and third party operators may seek to recover losses from the Group under indemnities or in respect of breaches of obligations or warranties under their agreements with the Group. In addition, third party operators may give notice of termination of service (typically six months in advance), requiring the Group to find a new operator which may result in service disruption. Such events could potentially have a material adverse effect on the Group's reputation, and consequently a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

To help mitigate this risk, UK Coach has implemented robust controls and procedures to monitor third party operators' operating performance and provide support where required. In previous instances where third party operators have left the network, the transmission to new operators has been smooth, helped by UK Coach's extensive list of pre-approved coach operators who can step in at short notice.

The Group participates in defined benefit pension schemes and the contributions payable to these schemes might vary over time

The Group operates a number of defined benefit pension schemes, including two Local Government Pension Schemes ("LGPS"), and is consequently exposed to the risk that the cash contributions required to be made to these schemes increase due to changes in factors such as investment performance, interest rates used to discount liabilities and life expectancies. These schemes have experienced an increase in combined actuarial deficits. Over recent years there has been significant falls in gilt yields which have reduced expected future investment returns and consequently the discount rate which is used to value future pension payments. As well as market movements, material changes in the regulatory and funding environment for defined benefit pension schemes could also impact the contributions required and potentially result in the Group being required to increase its future cash funding.

During 2012, the Group completed a buy-in of the existing pensioner liabilities in the West Midlands LGPS with Prudential. This insurance policy covers around 45 per cent. of the Fund's liabilities, with Prudential becoming responsible for payments (excluding future inflationary increases) to pensioners at the date of the buy-in. This transaction has helped reduce the overall risk associated with the West Midlands LGPS by passing the risks of investment market volatility and any unanticipated increases in life expectancy of the pensioners to Prudential. The triennial reviews of the funding positions in relation to the West Midlands LGPS and the Group's principal non-rail defined benefit scheme are currently taking place with the results of the valuations expected in the first half of 2017. There can be no assurances that the results of these reviews or any discussions with the applicable scheme trustees will not result in the Group being required to increase its future cash funding obligations.

The Group's defined benefit pension scheme deficits are calculated on an IAS19 basis and as at 31 December 2015 these schemes had a combined deficit under IAS19 of £12.6 million. Under applicable legislation, however, the pension scheme trustees may adopt a funding basis which results in calculated deficits that are significantly higher than those calculated on an IAS19 basis. Accordingly, the contributions necessary to remedy those deficits may be significantly higher than the IAS19 position might suggest.

The UK rail businesses of the Group participate in the Railways Pension Scheme ("RPS"), which is a sectionalised pension scheme open to companies operating in the UK railway industries, and open to eligible new members within such companies. The Group's rail businesses, as designated employers for the RPS, must fund their share of the pension liability of the sections of the RPS they participate in during the duration of their franchises in accordance with the schedule of contributions agreed with the RPS trustees and actuaries. It has to date been the Department for Transport's interpretation of the franchise agreements and the Group's experience, that any pension deficits existing at the end of their franchise agreements are transferred to the new franchisee, without cash settlement. However, although this has been the Group's experience to date, the liability to fund a pension's deficit may crystallise during or at the end of a franchise agreement and the Group may become liable for such liabilities. Should such liabilities crystallise and the Group be required to fund any deficit, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's cash flow.

The Group retains a significant proportion of risk for certain types of insurance claims, before it is able to claim under external insurance policies

The Group's policy is to adopt a level of self-insurance within its business, particularly for high frequency claims. As a result, the policy deductibles on a number of the Group's external insurance policies provide that a significant proportion of any claim must be met by the Group instead of under the applicable policy.

In the UK, the Group's external insurance policies are subject to certain deductibles, which means that the Group is responsible for (as at the date of this Prospectus):

- The first £250,000 of claims relating to motor liabilities (principally UK Coach and UK Bus).
- The first £250,000 of claims relating to employer's liability (bus, coach and rail).
- The first £250,000 of claims relating to public liability (principally rail).
- The first £1 million of claims relating to damage to the Group's own property, including rolling stock, and buses/coaches while parked at the Group's premises. This deductible also applies in respect of the Group's property in Germany.

In North America, the Group's external insurance policies are also subject to certain deductibles, which means that the Group is responsible for (as at the date of this Prospectus):

- The first $5 million (U.S./CAD) of claims relating to auto or general liability.
- The first $2 million (U.S./CAD) of claims relating to workers' compensation (employee injury, US only).
- The first $250,000 (U.S./CAD) of claims relating to damage to the Group's own property, including buses parked at the Group's premises.

Across the Group, the crime insurance policy provides cover for any losses arising from theft or fraud, but only covers incurred losses above £1 million.

Therefore, the Group must in certain circumstances cover a significant proportion of any successful claim made against it. Any requirement beyond normal expectations for the Group to make substantial payments or provisions in respect of any successful claim or series of unrelated claims made against it could result in significant cash outflows or income statement charges and there can be no assurance that such cash outflows would not have a material adverse effect on the Group's profitability and cashflow position.

The Group relies on the experience and continuity of key personnel for the success of its business

Attracting and retaining key members of senior management is vital in ensuring that the Group continues to have the necessary expertise and continuity to execute its strategy. However, there can be no assurances that the Group will continue to be able to attract and retain the appropriate members of senior management. A failure to attract, or the loss of, such key members of senior management could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

If the Group is unable to successfully recruit and retain qualified employees, this may adversely impact its business, financial condition and results of operations, and impact opportunities for growth in new markets

The Group's business depends on delivering high quality, reliable services, cost efficiently. Staff costs are the largest single component of the Group's costs, representing around one half of the Group's total operating costs in the 2015 financial year. Service delivery and the ability to exploit future growth opportunities therefore requires access to, and retention of, high calibre staff, including in particular operational management, train, bus and coach drivers, at an affordable cost. Labour shortages, or low unemployment rates, could hinder the Group's ability to recruit and retain qualified employees leading to a higher than expected increase in the Group's staff costs, including the costs of recruiting and training train, bus and coach drivers, in addition to having a material adverse effect on the Group's service delivery. If the Group is not successful in its recruitment and retention of qualified employees, this may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and ability to grow.

Industrial actions taken by organised labour unions could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

The Group's UK and Spanish divisions are heavily unionised with around 90 per cent. of the UK division's employees and around 40 per cent. of the Spanish division's employees represented by collective bargaining agreements. Approximately 35 per cent. of employees in the North American division are represented by collective bargaining agreements and the Board acknowledges that there is growing pressure for unionisation of its employees in its North American school bus business, where it continues to be the subject of a Corporate Organising Campaign by the Teamsters Union. Whilst the Group operates within its Workplace Rights Policy on a global basis, significant industrial action in any of the Group's businesses could result in a significant disruption of operations and increased costs and/or damage to its reputation, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The Teamsters' Corporate Organising Campaign could result in reputational risk.

Changes in employment legislation could add cost to the business and have a material impact on financial results

With staff costs making up approximately one-half of the Group's operating expenditure, the cost base could be adversely affected by legislative changes if these significantly alter minimum/living wage costs or provisions around paid leave. These risks include, but are not limited to, potential changes to minimum/living wage rates in the UK and Europe, extensions of paid leave provisions and funding of medical insurance under the Affordable Care Act in the U.S., and changes to the basis for calculation of holiday pay in the UK and Spain.

The Group's businesses are dependent on it maintaining its brands in each jurisdiction in which it operates and the Group is also exposed to reputational risks related to the transport industry

The Group is dependent on maintaining its brands in each jurisdiction in which it operates in order to maintain and grow its businesses. The Group's brands are an important asset of its businesses and central to the Group's success. The Group is exposed to the risk that litigation, misconduct, operational failures, negative publicity and press speculation, whether or not valid, could harm its reputation. The Group's reputation could also be adversely affected if its services do not perform as expected. In addition, the Group's reputation could be affected by the conduct or performance of third parties, such as those to which it outsources the operation of its UK Coach business, and over which it does not have full control. The Group may also be unable to protect its brands against third party competition, and any future re-branding or brand expansion could be restricted by pre-existing third party intellectual property rights.

The Group is also exposed to adverse publicity relating to the transport industry as a whole. An incident related to, or the conduct of, a competitor unrelated to the Group may taint the reputation of the industry as a whole and may affect the perception of passengers, investors and the attitude of regulators.

Furthermore, negative publicity may result in greater regulatory scrutiny of the Group's operations and of the industry generally. If the Group is unable to maintain its brands in each of the jurisdictions in which it operates or should there be reputational damage to the transport industry as a whole, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is subject to risks resulting from currency fluctuations and hedging activities

Fluctuations in foreign exchange rates give rise to translation risk and effect the value of those liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. In addition, there can be no certainty that the Group's cashflows across its various operational currencies will be in similar proportions to the Group's financial liabilities in those same currencies. Accordingly, exchange rate fluctuations may have an impact on the Group's longer term financial position, including its ability to comply with its financial covenants.

The Group also prepares its financial statements in Sterling, but generates a significant proportion of its revenue in other currencies. To the extent that its revenues are received in currencies other than Sterling, and currency exchange rates become unfavourable, the Group may lose some of the economic value of its revenue in Sterling terms. As the Group grows its overseas operations, it may receive more of its revenue in currencies other than Sterling. Hedging strategies, such as forward contracts, options and foreign exchange swaps, that may be implemented to mitigate this risk may not eliminate the Group's exposure to foreign exchange rate fluctuations which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is exposed to the risk of litigation and other adversarial proceedings

The Group is exposed to the risk of litigation, regulatory proceedings and other adversarial proceedings (with or without merit) from its passengers, employees, recognised trade unions, regulatory authorities, competitors and other parties. Although as stated in the section under "General Information" of this Base Prospectus under "4. Legal and Arbitration Proceedings", neither the Issuer, the Guarantor nor any member of the Group is or has been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer or the Guarantor is aware) which may have, or have had during the 12 months prior to the date of this document, a significant effect on the Issuer's, the Guarantor's and/or the Group's financial position or profitability, no assurance can be given that proceedings or disputes (actual or threatened) which could have such effect will not arise in the future or that proceedings and disputes to which the Group is currently party and which it does not expect to have such effect will not ultimately turn out to do so.

The Group may be unable to retain, extend or renew a number of its short-term property leases and licences in respect of its North America, UK Coach and ALSA businesses

A significant proportion of the Group's operational property interests in respect of its North America, UK Coach and ALSA businesses are short-term leases due to expire within the next 5 years. The Group also occupies other properties for its UK Coach business on the basis of licences to occupy and rights contained within management operating agreements, which may be terminated on relatively short notice. Actions are agreed with the operational teams to mitigate the risk of the loss of the property so not to effect operational capability of performance. The North American, UK and European occupancy of property under agreements is protected by statute law and case law such that tenants have agreed and well known protected rights.

The Group is also moving into new markets in the Middle East where the influence of Sovereign State decisions can have a direct impact on occupancy. In the Middle East, property is occupied under lease agreements but these may and can be overridden by direct Sovereign State influence and instruction. This risk does not occur outside the region where the Group operates.

There is a risk that the Group may be unable to renew such arrangements when they expire or are terminated. If the Group is able to renew such arrangements, such renewals may be on terms that are less favourable to the Group than those under existing arrangements. Where the Group is unable to renew such arrangements or otherwise continue to use such properties, there can be no assurance that the Group will be able to secure substantially similar alternative properties in equivalent locations at equivalent terms, or at all. Accordingly, if the Group loses its ability to continue to operate from its current operational locations, or if the Group accepts leases or licences on significantly less favourable terms, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Continuity of the Group's businesses is dependent on the Group's IT systems, which may fail or be subject to disruption

The Group's operations are highly dependent on advanced information systems, including internal bespoke and third party licensed software, and there is a risk that such technology could fail. In addition to such failure, there can be no assurance that such technology or systems will not be subject to damage or interruption caused by human error, unauthorised access, computer viruses, denial of service, attacks, sabotage, natural hazards or disasters or other similarly disruptive events, including other security breaches. The Group has in place disaster recovery procedures, security measures, support and maintenance, usually provided in-house in the first instance and thereafter by third party contractors, in the event of failure or disruption, but such procedures and measures may not anticipate, prevent or mitigate any material adverse effect of such failure or disruption on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Furthermore, the Group may at any time be required to expend significant capital or other resources to protect against failure and disruption, including the replacement or upgrading of its existing business continuity systems, procedures and security measures. If replacements, expansions, upgrades and other maintenance are not completed efficiently or there are operational failures, the quality of service experienced by passengers may decline. If, as a result, passengers were to reduce or stop their use of the Group's services, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Additionally, if the Group is unable to acquire or implement new technology, it may suffer a competitive disadvantage, which could also have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Notwithstanding anything in this risk factor, this risk factor should not be taken as implying that the Issuer will be unable to comply with its obligations as a company with securities admitted to the Official List.

Demand for the Group's services may be adversely affected by economic conditions beyond the Group's control

Demand for the Group's services, like those of other public transportation operators and those of other participants in any industry, is influenced by general economic trends. There can be no assurance that the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations will not be materially and adversely affected by general economic trends. Economic conditions remain challenging in Europe. In the UK, and, potentially, in other members states of the European Union, economic conditions may be particularly adversely affected by the UK's impending exit from the European Union.

If economic conditions were to deteriorate in any of the markets in which the Group operates, the number of journeys taken by passengers in those markets would be likely to decrease as relative disposable income decreases, unemployment increases and the spending habits of passengers change to reflect increased uncertainty and nervousness regarding the economic outlook. Whilst some of the Group's businesses have naturally defensive characteristics, some of the more discretionary parts of the business, such as the UK Coach and Spanish coach divisions, and those that are reliant to some degree on revenues from commuters such as the UK bus and rail divisions, may be adversely affected by reduced economic activity and higher unemployment. The Group's ability to reduce service levels in times of weaker demand varies from business to business, and there can be no assurance that the Group will be able appropriately to reduce service levels to mitigate any material effect of a decrease in passenger journeys on its profitability.

In addition, though it is likely that a downturn in the economy of a particular jurisdiction in which the Group operates may adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations, the extent of such impact is uncertain.

Increases in energy and/or fuel costs could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

All of the Group's businesses incur energy and/or fuel costs, and in particular the Group is exposed to commodity price risk as a result of fuel usage. Fuel costs constitute a significant portion of the Group's costs. Fuel costs amounted to around 9 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue in the 2015 financial year, one percentage point lower than in the 2014 financial year. The price of crude oil (and therefore the refined petroleum products used in the Group's operations) can be volatile, for example falling from over U.S.$110 per barrel in July 2014 to less than U.S.$30 per barrel in January 2016 (Source: Reuters). Fuel prices and supply levels can be influenced significantly by international, political and economic circumstances. If fuel supply shortages were to arise because of national strikes, world supply difficulties or disruption of refining capacity or oil imports, this could result in higher fuel prices and disruption to services. The Group seeks to mitigate the risks of increases in fuel costs by entering into fuel swaps and purchase contracts. As at 30 June 2016, the Group had hedged approximately 100 per cent. of its fuel usage for the 2016 financial year, 93 per cent. of its expected fuel usage for the 2017 financial year, 76 per cent. of its expected fuel usage for the 2018 financial year and 12 per cent. of its expected fuel usage for the 2019 financial year. There can be no assurance that increases in energy costs, including increases in fuel costs, will not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's businesses are exposed to competitive pressures from other modes of transport and other operators in the same modes of transport

The Group's businesses are exposed to competitive pressures, including in the areas of pricing and service, from modes of transport other than buses, coaches and rail and from other operators in the same modes of transport.

In the Group's UK bus division ("UK Bus") and UK Coach business, the Group's main competitor is the car. The cost of driving a car is generally perceived as being lower than travelling by bus or coach, especially if there is more than one person in the car. As such, car-sharing and on-demand taxi services are also an emerging source of potential competition. In addition, the Group's UK Coach business also competes with rival coach operators, as well as services provided by train operating companies which are increasingly offering reduced price fares in order to increase capacity utilisation and drive passenger revenue growth in a period of economic uncertainty in the UK. The Group's UK Bus business increasingly competes with other operators, where deregulation of the industry has made it possible for any company to begin operating a commercial service (except for local bus services within London), after giving notice to and receiving the necessary operating licence from the Traffic Commissioners appointed by the Secretary of State for Transport.

The Group's Rail businesses compete at both the bid and operating stages of the business. The Group competes at the bid stage with other train operators. The main competitors to the Group's Rail businesses at the operating stage are the car, other train operators, open-access operators and, to a lesser extent, budget airlines and other coach operators.

In North America, the Group's student transportation business competes with several large, national companies as well as a substantial number of smaller, locally owned operators. The Group's competitors in the student transportation business can also include school districts (which are governmental bodies), as many school districts also operate their own school buses.

In Spain, the Group's long distance coach business competes primarily with high-speed train operators and to a lesser extent budget airlines and online car sharing services. The Group's patronage in Spain also faces competition from national and international competitors in the market.

There can be no assurance that competitive pressures may not in the future have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The success of the Group's business is dependent upon its relationships with government authorities and key external stakeholders

The Group's relationships with government authorities regulating public transportation operators in the jurisdictions in which it operates and with key external stakeholders are significant factors contributing to the success of the Group's business. As part of the UK government's devolution agenda, in certain areas of the UK, powers are being devolved to regional authorities to set local public transportation policy, which increases the likelihood of bus franchising in these regions and will make it much easier for local authorities to directly contract commercial services in a similar way to London.

The Group engages fully with its regulators and key stakeholders with regard to issues of shared concern, such as the regulation of transport services, supply arrangements, environmental issues and safety and punctuality initiatives. If the Group fails to maintain such relationships or if such relationships were adversely affected for any reason, any action or inaction on the part of the Group, negative publicity concerning the Group or the public transportation industry or the development of mutually exclusive interests between the Group and the other party, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group may be adversely affected by political and regulatory changes

The Group's businesses are subject to numerous laws in the jurisdictions in which they operate regulating safety procedures, equipment specifications, employment requirements, environmental procedures, insurance coverage and other operating issues. These laws are constantly subject to change. There is a risk that the transport industry will become more regulated in the jurisdictions in which the Group operates. In addition, local authorities with whom the Group contracts could specify levels of quality and service with which the Group must comply. The costs associated with complying with changes in interpretations of existing, or the adoption of new, legislation, regulations or other laws in the jurisdictions in which the Group operates and of meeting specific levels of quality and service under contractual obligations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group may be adversely affected by environmental requirements and liabilities

The Group is subject to extensive and constantly evolving national and local environmental laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which it operates, including laws and regulations governing air emissions, wastewater discharges, the storage, handling and transportation of chemicals and hazardous substances and the remediation of contaminated soil and groundwater. The Group is also subject to environmental agency legislation in the jurisdictions in which it operates and certain contractual requirements relating to the environment and may incur liabilities arising from historical environmental contamination at properties it owns or has owned. Additional expenditures may be incurred by the Group in order to comply with either new environmental legislation and regulations, new interpretations of existing laws and regulations or more rigorous enforcement of such laws and regulations, as well as in connection with fulfilling contractual and historical environmental contamination obligations at Group sites. There can be no assurance that any such expenditures will not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations; however, the Group is constantly monitoring its environmental operations and risks. Mitigation strategies are in place to seek to avoid any such occurrence having a material effect.

In addition, the Group's adaptation and mitigation measures on climate change risks are managed under the Group's regulatory and physical climate related frameworks.

The Group is exposed to the risk of operational and other safety incidents

The Group, like all public transportation operators, is exposed to the risk of operational incidents. Any operational or other safety incident involving loss of life or significant damage to property or assets or harm to any person relating to the Group's services could result in a substantial loss in public confidence in the Group. In addition, any operational or other safety incident involving loss of life or significant damage to property or assets or harm to any person relating to the services of any other public transportation operator, especially a train operator, could result in a loss in public confidence in the Group, to the extent that the Group is perceived as conducting a similar business operation. Any such loss in public confidence in the Group could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as negatively impacting the ability of the Group to win and retain contracts or franchises.

Any operational or other safety incident involving loss of life or significant damage to property or assets or harm to any person exposes the Group to financial risk, including personal injury and other liability claims or criminal proceedings as well as the possibility that its operations may be suspended or terminated, and accordingly, any such incident could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Certain operational incidents are outside the Group's control, such as incidents involving the suspension of services caused by adverse weather conditions. Such incidents could affect the Group's profitability and also result in a loss in public confidence in the Group and could consequently have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Actual or attempted terrorist activities in the United Kingdom, North America, Spain or elsewhere in the world and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Group

The increasing number of actual or attempted terrorist activities and other acts of violence within and outside the United Kingdom, North America, Spain and elsewhere in the world has adversely affected, and is expected to continue to adversely affect, the general economic activities of the Group's passengers. In particular, terrorist acts and the public's concerns about potential attacks could adversely affect demand for the Group's services. There have been multiple acts of terrorism on public transport systems and other terrorist attacks that whilst not directly targeting public transport have discouraged travel. For example, following the terrorist attacks in London in July 2005, demand for discretionary travel in and out of London was badly affected and the Group made a force majeure claim under one of its rail franchise agreements. In addition, if the Group was to be perceived as not taking all reasonable precautions to guard against potential terrorist acts and other acts of violence, this could negatively impact the Group's reputation with passengers, thereby reducing demand for the Group's services. Any fall in demand for the Group's services could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

As a result of actual or attempted terrorist activities or other acts of violence, governmental authorities may mandate security procedures in addition to those currently employed by the Group, thereby increasing the Group's costs, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group may be exposed to a number of political, social and macroeconomic risks relating to an exit by the United Kingdom from the European Union

On 23 June 2016, the UK voted in a national referendum to withdraw from the European Union (the "June Referendum"). Whilst the UK government has stated its commitment to implementing the result of the June Referendum, it is currently unclear as to when the UK will formally serve notice to the European Council of its desire to withdraw; a process that is unprecedented in European Union history and one that could involve months or years of negotiation to draft and approve a withdrawal agreement in accordance with Article 50 of the Treaty on European Union.

Regardless of any eventual timing or terms of an exit by the UK from the European Union, the June Referendum has created significant political, social and macroeconomic uncertainty, both in the UK and in other member states of the European Union. In particular, certain public figures in other European Union member states have called for referenda in their respective countries on exiting the European Union, raising concerns over a "domino" or "contagion" effect whereby multiple member states seek to exit the European Union and Eurozone, eventually culminating in their collapse as political and economic institutions.

As a result of this uncertainty, in the immediate wake of the June Referendum, stock exchange indices around the world, and in the UK in particular, declined significantly. In addition, the pound sterling experienced sharp depreciation immediately following the vote. Within one day of the June Referendum, Moody's, Fitch and Standard & Poor's Rating Services each downgraded the outlook of the UK government's bond rating from stable to negative, warning that the country's economic growth and fiscal strength are likely to be lower in the event the United Kingdom exits the European Union. In addition, on 4 August 2016 the Bank of England cut the UK base interest rate from 0.5 per cent. to 0.25 per cent. and noted its willingness to engage in a further round of quantitative easing to support the UK economy and encourage growth.

A withdrawal by the UK from the European Union may result in significant macroeconomic deterioration and prolonged economic uncertainty in the markets in which the Group operates, including, but not limited to, further decreases in global stock exchange indices, increased foreign exchange volatility (in particular a further weakening of the pound sterling and euro against other leading currencies), decreased gross domestic product in the United Kingdom and a downgrade of the United Kingdom's sovereign credit rating. In addition, there are increasing concerns that these events could push the United Kingdom, Eurozone and/or United States into an economic recession. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Depending on the contours of the agreement reached between the United Kingdom and European Union on migration and immigration (if any), the United Kingdom's exit from the European Union could result in restrictions on mobility of personnel and could create difficulties for the Group in recruiting and retaining qualified employees.

In addition, an exit by the UK from the European Union and any consequential loss of the ability of UK-based businesses to sell goods and services freely and bid for work within the European Union may result in an increase in UK unemployment, potentially as a result of the relocation of businesses and jobs to other member states of the European Union. This could have a particularly adverse effect on the Group's UK operations, especially those of its rail operation which operates routes into central London.

Any of these risks could result in lower revenue, higher operating costs and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may bear interest at a rate that the Issuer may elect to convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. The Issuer's ability to convert the interest rate will affect the secondary market and the market value of such Notes since the Issuer may be expected to convert the rate when it is likely to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing. If the Issuer converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. If the Issuer converts from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on its Notes.

Notes issued at a substantial discount

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount to their nominal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

The Notes may be redeemed by the Issuer prior to maturity

If in the case of any particular Tranche of Notes the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Notes are redeemable at the Issuer's option, the Issuer may choose to redeem the Notes at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the relevant Notes.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes

Notes that are specified as having an inverse floating rate have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate such as the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"). The market values of such Notes typically are more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse floating rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes.

Risks related to Notes generally

Modification and waivers and substitution

The Conditions contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Conditions also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders, agree to (i) any modification to the Conditions or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the provisions of Notes, (ii) determine without the consent of the Noteholders that any Event of Default or potential Event of Default shall not be treated as such, and (iii) the substitution of another company as principal debtor under any Notes in place of the Issuer, in the circumstances described in Condition 16 (Meetings of Noteholders; Modification and Waiver).

There is no active trading market for the Notes

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Issuer and the Guarantor. Although applications have been made for the Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to the Official List of the FCA and to trading on the Regulated Market of the London Stock Exchange, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for any particular Tranche of Notes.

Because the Global Notes are held by or on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfers, payments with the Issuer

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes. Such Global Notes will be deposited with a common depository or, as the case may be, common safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive Definitive Notes. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Change of Tax Law

Statements in this Base Prospectus concerning the taxation of investors are of a general nature and are based upon current tax law and published practice in the jurisdictions stated. Such law and practice is subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect, and this could adversely affect investors.

In addition, any change in the Issuer's tax status or in taxation legislation or in practice in a relevant jurisdiction could adversely impact (i) the ability of the Issuer to service the Notes and (ii) the market value of the Notes.

Change of law

The Conditions are based on English law in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Notes. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of issue of the relevant Notes.

If Definitive Notes are issued, such Notes may be illiquid and difficult to trade

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Notes may be traded in amounts that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denominations (as defined in the Conditions). In such a case a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time will not receive a Definitive Note in respect of such holding (should Definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

If Definitive Notes are issued, Noteholders should be aware that Definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Risks related to the market generally

The secondary market generally

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Interest rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to an issue of Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended), subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances whilst the registration application is pending. Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (“ESMA”) on its website in accordance with the CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is disclosed on the front cover of this Base Prospectus and if a Tranche of Notes is rated such rating will be disclosed in the relevant Final Terms

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from each issue of Notes may be applied by the Issuer for its general funding purposes.

FINAL TERMS, DRAWDOWN PROSPECTUSES AND SUPPLEMENTS

In this section the expression “necessary information” means, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, the information necessary to enable investors to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer and the Guarantor and of the rights attaching to the Notes. In relation to the different types of Notes which may be issued under the Programme the Issuer and the Guarantor have endeavoured to include in this Base Prospectus all of the necessary information except for information relating to the Notes which is not known at the date of this Base Prospectus and which can only be determined at the time of an individual issue of a Tranche of Notes.

Any information relating to the Notes which is not included in this Base Prospectus and which is required in order to complete the necessary information in relation to a Tranche of Notes will be contained either in the relevant Final Terms or in a Drawdown Prospectus.

For a Tranche of Notes which is the subject of Final Terms, those Final Terms will, for the purposes of that Tranche only, complete this Base Prospectus and must be read in conjunction with this Base Prospectus. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes which is the subject of Final Terms are the Conditions as completed by the relevant Final Terms.

Each Drawdown Prospectus will be constituted by a single document containing the necessary information relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor and the relevant Notes. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus will be the Conditions as supplemented, amended and/or replaced to the extent described in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus. In the case of a Tranche of Notes which is the subject of a Drawdown Prospectus, each reference in this Base Prospectus to information being specified or identified in the relevant Final Terms shall be read and construed as a reference to such information being specified or identified in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus unless the context requires otherwise.

In the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to information included in this Base Prospectus which is capable of affecting the assessment of any Notes and whose inclusion or removal from this Base Prospectus is necessary for the purpose of allowing an investor to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses and prospects of the Issuer and/or the Guarantor and/or and the rights attaching to the Notes, the Issuer will prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus or publish a new Base Prospectus for use in connection with such Notes and any subsequent issue of Notes.

FORM OF THE NOTES

Each Tranche of Notes will initially be in the form of either a temporary global note (the “Temporary Global Note”), without interest coupons, or a permanent global note (the “Permanent Global Note”), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Each Temporary Global Note or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Note (each a “Global Note”) which is not intended to be issued in new global note (“NGN”) form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V. (“Euroclear”) and/or Clearstream Banking SA (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”) and/or any other relevant clearing system and each Global Note which is intended to be issued in NGN form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes with one of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg (or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg) as common safekeeper.

The Notes will be issued in compliance with U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”)) (the “D Rules”) unless (a) the relevant Final Terms states that Notes are issued in compliance with U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code) (the “C Rules”) or (b) the Notes are issued other than in compliance with the D Rules or the C Rules but in circumstances in which the Notes will not constitute “registration required obligations” under the United States Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 (“TEFRA”), which circumstances will be referred to in the relevant Final Terms as a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable.

Where the Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are in NGN form, the Issuer will also notify the relevant clearing system as to whether or not such Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any time during their life as such recognition depends upon the European Central Bank (the “ECB”) being satisfied that the Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met. Furthermore, any indication that the Global Notes are not intended to be so held may be the case at the date of the relevant Final Terms. However, should the Eurosystem eligibility criteria be amended in the future such that the Notes are capable of meeting them, the Notes may then be deposited with one of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg (or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg) as common safekeeper. Similarly, this would not necessarily mean that the Notes will then be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra day credit operations by the Eurosystem at any time during their life. Such recognition will depend upon the ECB being satisfied that Eurosystem eligibility criteria have been met.

Temporary Global Note exchangeable for Permanent Global Note

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Notes as being “Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note”, then the Notes will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Note which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note, without interest coupons, not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Notes upon certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments will be made under the Temporary Global Note unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Note is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Notes cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note, the Issuer shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Note to or to the order of the Paying Agent; and
- (ii) receipt by the Paying Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership, within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

The principal amount of the Permanent Global Note shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note exceed the initial principal amount of the Temporary Global Note.

The Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Notes in definitive form (“Definitive Notes”) only if Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business and no other clearing system is available.

Whenever the Permanent Global Note is to be exchanged for Definitive Notes, the Issuer shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Notes, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Note to the bearer of the Permanent Global Note against the surrender of the Permanent Global Note to or to the order of the Paying Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Notes

The terms and conditions applicable to any Definitive Note will be endorsed on that Note and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under “Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form” below.

Legend concerning United States persons

In the case of any Tranche of Notes having a maturity of more than 365 days, the Notes in global form, the Notes in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto will bear a legend to the following effect:

“ANY UNITED STATES PERSON (AS DEFINED IN THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA) WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(J) AND 1287(A) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.”

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions which, as completed by the relevant Final Terms, will be endorsed on each Note in definitive form issued under the Programme. The terms and conditions applicable to any Note in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Note were it in definitive form to the extent described under “Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form” below.

1. Introduction

(a) Programme:

National Express Group PLC (the “Issuer”) has established a Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the “Programme”) for the issuance of up to £1,000,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of notes (the “Notes”) unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by West Midlands Travel Limited (the “Guarantor”).

(b) Final Terms:

Notes issued under the Programme are issued in series (each a “Series”) and each Series may comprise one or more tranches (each a “Tranche”) of Notes. Each Tranche is the subject of final terms (the “Final Terms”) which completes these terms and conditions (the “Conditions”). The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Notes are these Conditions as completed by the relevant Final Terms. In the event of any inconsistency between these Conditions and the relevant Final Terms, the relevant Final Terms shall prevail.

(c) Trust Deed:

The Notes are constituted by, have the benefit of and are in all respects subject to a trust deed dated 2 October 2015 (the “Trust Deed”) between the Issuer, the Guarantor and BNY Mellon Corporate Trustee Services Limited (the “Trustee”, which expression shall include all persons for the time being the trustee or trustees under the Trust Deed) as trustee for the Noteholders (as defined below).

(d) Agency Agreement:

The Notes are the subject of an issue and paying agency agreement dated 2 October 2015 (the “Agency Agreement”) between the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee, The Bank of New York Mellon as principal paying agent (the “Principal Paying Agent”, which expression includes any successor principal paying agent appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes) and the other agents appointed by the Issuer from time to time (together with the Principal Paying Agent, the “Paying Agents” which expression shall include any additional or successor paying agents).

(e) Guarantee:

The Guarantor has in the Trust Deed given an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee (a “Guarantee”) for the due payment of all sums expressed to be payable by the Issuer under the Trust Deed, the Notes and the Coupons, subject to the provisions of Condition 4 (Status of the Notes and Guarantee).

(f) The Notes:

All subsequent references in these Conditions to “Notes” are to the Notes which are the subject of the relevant Final Terms. Copies of the relevant Final Terms are available for viewing during normal business hours and copies may be obtained from the Specified Office(s) of the Paying Agent(s), the initial Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent being set out at the end of these Conditions.

The Notes may be Fixed Rate Notes, Floating Rate Notes, Zero Coupon Notes or a combination of any of the foregoing, depending upon the Interest Basis shown in the relevant Final Terms.

(g) Summaries:

Certain provisions of these Conditions are summaries of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement and are subject to their detailed provisions. The holders of the Notes (the “Noteholders”), the holders of the related interest coupons (the “Coupons”), and, where applicable, talons for further coupons (the “Talons”) (the “Couponholders”) are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement applicable to them. Copies of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement are available for inspection by Noteholders during normal business hours at the Specified Office(s) of the Paying Agent(s).

Each Note will cease to bear interest from the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 6 (after as well as before any judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Principal Paying Agent has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

(c) Fixed Coupon Amount:

The amount of interest payable in respect of each Note for any Interest Period shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount and, if the Notes are in more than one Specified Denomination, shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount in respect of the relevant Specified Denomination.

(d) Calculation of Interest Amount:

The amount of interest payable in respect of each Note for any period for which a Fixed Coupon Amount is not specified shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction, rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of such Note divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a “sub-unit” means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

7. Floating Rate Note Provisions

(a) Application:

This Condition 7 is applicable to the Notes only if the Floating Rate Note provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

(b) Accrual of interest:

The Notes bear interest at their principal amount from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the Rate of Interest payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 10 (Payments). Each Note will cease to bear interest from the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 7 (as well after as before judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Principal Paying Agent has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

(c) Screen Rate Determination:

Where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (i) the offered quotation; or
- (ii) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations, (expressed as a percentage rate per annum), for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the relevant Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one highest quotation, one only of those quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one lowest quotation, one only of those quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered quotations.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of (i) above, no offered quotation appears or, in the case of (ii) above, fewer than three offered quotations appear, in each case as at the Relevant Time, the Calculation Agent shall request each of the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Calculation Agent.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Calculation Agent with an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Calculation Agent determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the London inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is LIBOR) or the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Trustee and the Issuer suitable for the purpose) inform the Calculation Agent it is/they are quoting to leading banks in the London inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is LIBOR) or the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

(d) ISDA Determination:

If ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Rate(s) of Interest is/are to be determined, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where “ISDA Rate” in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (i) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the relevant Final Terms;
- (ii) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a period specified in the relevant Final Terms; and
- (iii) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a date specified in the relevant Final Terms.

(e) Linear Interpolation:

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Principal Paying Agent (or if the Principal Paying Agent is not the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent specified in the applicable Final Terms) by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate (where Screen Rate Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms) or the relevant Floating Rate Option (where ISDA Determination is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms), one of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity (as defined below) were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period, provided however, that if there is no rate available for the period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Principal Paying Agent (or if the Principal Paying Agent is not the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent specified in the applicable Final Terms) shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

“Applicable Maturity” means: (a) in relation to Screen Rate Determination, the period of time designated in the Reference Rate, and (b) in relation to ISDA Determination, the Designated Maturity.

(f) Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest:

If any Maximum Rate of Interest or Minimum Rate of Interest is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Rate of Interest shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified. Unless otherwise stated in the relevant Final Terms, the Minimum Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be zero.

(g) Calculation of Interest Amount:

The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Note for such Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction, rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Note divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a “sub-unit” means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

(h) Calculation of other amounts:

If the relevant Final Terms specifies that any other amount is to be calculated by the Calculation Agent, the Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time or times at which any such amount is to be determined, calculate the relevant amount. The relevant amount will be calculated by the Calculation Agent in the manner specified in the relevant Final Terms.

(i) Publication:

The Calculation Agent will cause each Rate of Interest and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, and any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) to be notified to the Paying Agents and each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination but (in the case of each Rate of Interest, Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date) in any event not later than the first day of the relevant Interest Period. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Noteholders. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of a Note having the minimum Specified Denomination.

(j) Notifications etc.:

All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of this Condition 7 by the Calculation Agent will (in the absence of manifest error) be binding on the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders and the Couponholders and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to any such Person will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.

(k) Determination or Calculation by Trustee:

If the Calculation Agent fails at any time to determine a Rate of Interest or to calculate an Interest Amount, the Trustee (or a person appointed by the Trustee for the purpose) will determine such Rate of Interest and make such determination or calculation which shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent. In doing so, the Trustee (or a person appointed by the Trustee for the purpose) shall apply all of the provisions of these Conditions with any necessary consequential amendments to the extent that, in its sole opinion and with absolute discretion, it can do so and in all other respects it shall do so in such manner as it shall deem fair and reasonable in all the circumstances and will not be liable for any loss, liability, cost, charge or expense which may arise as a result thereof. Any such determination or calculation made by the Trustee shall be binding on the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Noteholders and the Couponholders.

8. Zero Coupon Note Provisions

(a) Application:

This Condition 8 is applicable to the Notes only if the Zero Coupon Note provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

(b) Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes:

If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:

- (i) the Reference Price; and
- (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price on the basis of the relevant Day Count Fraction from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Note up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Noteholder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Principal Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the Trustee has notified the Noteholders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Notes up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).

9. Redemption and Purchase

(a) Scheduled redemption:

Unless previously redeemed, or purchased and cancelled in accordance with Condition 9(j) (Cancellation), the Notes will be redeemed at their Final Redemption Amount on the Maturity Date, subject as provided in Condition 10 (Payments).

(b) Redemption for tax reasons:

The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part:

- (i) at any time (if the Floating Rate Note provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being not applicable); or
- (ii) on any Interest Payment Date (if the Floating Rate Note provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 18 (Notices) (which notice shall be irrevocable), at their Early Redemption Amount (Tax), together with interest accrued (if any) to the date fixed for redemption, if the Issuer satisfies the Trustee immediately prior to the giving of such notice that:

- (A) on the occasion of the next payment due under the Notes the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 11 (Taxation), or the Guarantor would be unable (or unable without incurring a material tax expense) for reasons outside its control to procure payment by the Issuer and in making payment itself would be required to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 11 (Taxation), in each case as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the tax laws or regulations of a Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 11(b) (Taxing Jurisdiction)), or any change in the published application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective (a) on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of a Series of the Notes or (b) in the case of any Subsidiary which becomes a Guarantor after the Issue Date of a relevant Tranche of Notes, the first day after such Subsidiary becomes a Guarantor pursuant to Condition 4(d) (Additional Guarantors); and
- (B) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, taking reasonable measures available to it or them, as the case may be,

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than:

- (I) where the Notes may be redeemed at any time, 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due; or
- (II) where the Notes may be redeemed only on an Interest Payment Date, 60 days prior to the Interest Payment Date occurring immediately before the earliest date on which the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee (i) if the Trustee so requests, an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment and (ii) a certificate signed by two authorised officers of the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, stating that the obligation referred to in (A) above cannot be avoided by the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, as the case may be, taking reasonable measures available to it and the Trustee shall be entitled to accept such certificate as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the condition precedent set out in (B) above in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders and Couponholders.

(c) Redemption at the option of the Issuer:

The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer:

- (i) in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, in part if Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, on any Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Call) on the Issuer's giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) to the Noteholders and the Trustee (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes or, as the case may be, the Notes specified in such notice on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Call) at the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) plus accrued interest (if any) to such date).
- (ii) in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, in part if Sterling Make Whole Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) to the Noteholders and the Trustee (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes on the Sterling Make Whole Optional Redemption Date at a redemption price per Note equal to the higher of the following (the "Optional Redemption Amount (Make Whole Call)"), in each case plus accrued interest (if any) to the Sterling Make Whole Optional Redemption Date):
 - (A) the nominal amount of the Note; and
 - (B) the nominal amount of the Note multiplied by the price (as reported in writing to the Issuer and the Trustee by a financial adviser (the "Financial Adviser") appointed by the Issuer and approved by the Trustee) expressed as a percentage (rounded to four decimal places, 0.00005 being rounded upwards) at which the Gross Redemption Yield on the Notes on the Determination Date is equal to the Gross Redemption Yield at the Determination Time specified in the relevant Final Terms on the Determination Date specified in the relevant Final Terms of the Reference Stock specified in the relevant Final Terms (or, where the Financial Adviser advises the Issuer that, for reasons of illiquidity or otherwise, such Reference Stock is not appropriate for such purpose, such other government stock as such Financial Adviser may recommend) plus any applicable Margin specified in the relevant Final Terms.

- (iii) in whole or, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, in part if Issuer Maturity Par Call Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice (or such other period of notice as is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable) to the Noteholders and the Trustee (which notice shall be irrevocable and shall oblige the Issuer to redeem the Notes on the Issuer Maturity Par Call Redemption Date, which date shall be at any time during the period commencing on (and including) the day that is 90 days prior to the Maturity Date to (but excluding) the Maturity Date (the “Issuer Maturity Par Call Redemption Date”) at the Final Redemption Amount plus accrued interest (if any) to the Issuer Maturity Par Call Redemption Date.

(d) Partial redemption:

If the Notes are to be redeemed in part only on any date in accordance with Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer), the Notes to be redeemed shall be selected by the drawing of lots in such place and in such manner as the Trustee approves, subject to compliance with applicable law, the rules of each competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Notes have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation and the notice to Noteholders referred to in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) shall specify the serial numbers of the Notes so to be redeemed. If any Maximum Redemption Amount or Minimum Redemption Amount is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Optional Redemption Amount (Call) shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.

(e) Redemption at the option of Noteholders:

If Put Option is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any Note redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) specified in the relevant Put Option Notice at the relevant Optional Redemption Amount (Put) together with interest (if any) accrued to (but excluding) such date. In order to exercise the option contained in this Condition 9(e), the holder of a Note must, not less than 30 nor more than 60 days before the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put) (or such other notice period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms), deposit with any Paying Agent such Note together with all unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons relating thereto and a duly completed Put Option Notice in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent. The Paying Agent with which such Note is so deposited shall deliver a duly completed Put Option Receipt to the depositing Noteholder. No Note, once deposited with a duly completed Put Option Notice in accordance with this Condition 9(e), may be withdrawn; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT if, prior to the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), any such Note becomes immediately due and payable or, upon due presentation of any such Note on the relevant Optional Redemption Date (Put), payment of the redemption moneys is improperly withheld or refused, the relevant Paying Agent shall mail notification thereof to the depositing Noteholder at such address as may have been given by such Noteholder in the relevant Put Option Notice and shall hold such Note at its Specified Office for collection by the depositing Noteholder against surrender of the relevant Put Option Receipt. For so long as any outstanding Note is held by a Paying Agent in accordance with this Condition 9(e), the depositor of such Note and not such Paying Agent shall be deemed to be the holder of such Note for all purposes.

(f) Change of control redemption:

If “Change of Control Put Option” is specified in the relevant Final Terms to be applicable and a Change of Control Put Event occurs, the holder of each Note will have the option (unless prior to the giving of the relevant Change of Control Put Event Notice the Issuer has given notice of redemption under Condition 9(b) (Redemption for tax reasons) or Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer), if applicable) to require the Issuer to redeem or, at the Issuer’s option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) that Note on the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date at its Change of Control Optional Redemption Amount together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date (the “Change of Control Put Option”).

As soon as practicable upon, and in any event within 30 days after, the Issuer becoming aware that a Change of Control Put Event has occurred the Issuer shall, and at any time upon the Trustee becoming similarly so aware the Trustee may, and if so requested by the holders of at least one-quarter in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding or if so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Trust Deed) of the Noteholders, shall, (subject in each case to the Trustee being indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction) give the Change of Control Put Event Notice to the Noteholders.

To exercise the Change of Control Put Option in respect of a Note, the holder of the Note must deliver such Note to the Specified Office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the Change of Control Put Period, accompanied by a duly signed and completed Exercise Notice in which the holder may specify a bank account (in the currency of the Note) to which payment is to be made under this Condition 9(f). If the relevant Final Terms specifies that Fixed Rate Note provisions are applicable, the Note should be delivered together with all Coupons and unexchanged Talons appertaining thereto maturing after the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date, failing which Condition 10(e) (Deductions for unmaturing Coupons and unexchanged Talons) shall apply. The Paying Agent with which such Note is so deposited shall deliver a duly completed Change of Control Put Option Receipt to the depositing Noteholder. No Note, once deposited with a duly completed Exercise Notice in accordance with this Condition 9(f), may be withdrawn; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT if, prior to the relevant Change of Control Optional Redemption Date, any such Note becomes immediately due and payable or, upon due presentation of any such Note on the relevant Change of Control Optional Redemption Date, payment of the redemption moneys is improperly withheld or refused, the relevant Paying Agent shall mail notification thereof to the depositing Noteholder at such address as may have been given by such Noteholder in the relevant Exercise Notice and shall hold such Note at its Specified Office for collection by the depositing Noteholder against surrender of the relevant Change of Control Put Option Receipt. For so long as any outstanding Note is held by a Paying Agent in accordance with this Condition 9(f), the depositor of such Note and not such Paying Agent shall be deemed to be the holder of such Note for all purposes.

Payment in respect of any Note so delivered will be made, if the holder duly specified a bank account in the Exercise Notice to which payment is to be made, on the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date by transfer to that bank account and, in every other case, on or after the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date against presentation and surrender or (as the case may be) endorsement of such receipt at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent. For the purposes of the Conditions, Change of Control Put Option Receipts issued pursuant to this Condition 9(f) shall be treated as if they were Notes. The Issuer shall redeem or purchase (or procure the purchase of) the Notes in respect of which the Change of Control Put Option has been validly exercised in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 9(f) on the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date unless previously redeemed (or purchased) and cancelled.

If 80 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased pursuant to this Condition 9(f), the Issuer may, on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (such notice being given within 30 days after the Change of Control Optional Redemption Date), redeem or purchase (or procure the purchase of), at its option, all but not some only of the remaining outstanding Notes at the Change of Control Optional Redemption Amount, together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date fixed for such redemption or purchase.

If the rating designations employed by any Rating Agency are changed from those which are described in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of "Change of Control Put Event", "Non-Investment Grade Rating" or "Investment Grade Rating", or if a rating is procured from a Substitute Rating Agency, the Issuer shall determine, with the agreement of the Trustee, the rating designations of such Rating Agency or such Substitute Rating Agency (as appropriate) as are most equivalent to the prior rating designations of the relevant Rating Agency, and this Condition 9(f) shall be construed accordingly.

The Trustee is under no obligation to ascertain whether a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or any event which could lead to the occurrence of or could constitute a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control has occurred, and, until it shall have actual knowledge or notice pursuant to the Trust Deed to the contrary, the Trustee may assume that no Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or other such event has occurred.

(g) No other redemption:

The Issuer shall not be entitled to redeem the Notes otherwise than as provided in Conditions 9(a) (Scheduled redemption) to 9(f) (Change of control redemption) above.

(h) Early redemption of Zero Coupon Notes:

Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Redemption Amount payable on redemption of a Zero Coupon Note at any time before the Maturity Date shall be an amount equal to the sum of:

- (i) the Reference Price; and
- (ii) the product of the Accrual Yield (compounded annually) being applied to the Reference Price from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which the Note becomes due and payable.

Where such calculation is to be made for a period which is not a whole number of years, the calculation in respect of the period of less than a full year shall be made on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be specified in the Final Terms for the purposes of this Condition 9(h) or, if none is so specified, a Day Count Fraction of 30E/360.

(i) Purchase:

The Issuer, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price, and in any manner PROVIDED THAT all unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons appertaining thereto are purchased therewith. Such Notes may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer, the Guarantor or Subsidiary, as the case may be, surrendered to the Principal Paying Agent for cancellation.

(j) Cancellation:

All Notes redeemed by the Issuer will be cancelled or held for cancellation and may not be reissued or resold. Notes purchased by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Subsidiary and any unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons attached to or surrendered with them may, at the option of the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Subsidiary, as the case may be, be cancelled or may be held, reissued or resold.

10. Payments

(a) Principal:

Payments of principal shall be made only against presentation and (PROVIDED THAT payment is made in full) surrender of Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on, or by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency.

(b) Interest:

Payments of interest shall, subject to paragraph (h) below, be made only against presentation and (PROVIDED THAT payment is made in full) surrender of the appropriate Coupons at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States in the manner described in paragraph (a) above.

(c) Payments in New York City:

Payments of principal or interest may be made at the Specified Office of a Paying Agent in New York City only if (i) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents will be able to make payment of the full amount of the interest on the Notes in the currency in which the payment is due when due, (ii) payment of the full amount of such interest at the offices of all such Paying Agents is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions and (iii) payment is permitted by applicable United States law, without involving, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

(d) Payments subject to fiscal laws:

All payments in respect of the Notes are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 11 (Taxation). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders or Couponholders in respect of such payments.

(e) Deductions for unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons:

If the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Fixed Rate Note provisions are applicable and a Note is presented without all unmatured Coupons relating thereto:

- (i) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is less than or equal to the amount of principal due for payment, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of such missing Coupons which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment;
- (ii) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is greater than the amount of principal due for payment:
 - (A) so many of such missing Coupons shall become void (in inverse order of maturity) as will result in the aggregate amount of the remainder of such missing Coupons (the “Relevant Coupons”) being equal to the amount of principal due for payment; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT where this sub-paragraph would otherwise require a fraction of a missing Coupon to become void, such missing Coupon shall become void in its entirety; and
 - (B) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, if less, the amount of principal due for payment) will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT, if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, as the case may be, the amount of principal due for payment) which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment.

Each sum of principal so deducted shall be paid in the manner provided in paragraph (i) above against presentation and (PROVIDED THAT payment is made in full) surrender of the relevant missing Coupons.

(f) Unmatured Coupons void:

If the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Floating Rate Note provisions are applicable, on the due date for final redemption of any Note or early redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 9(b) (Redemption for tax reasons), Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders), Condition 9(f) (Change of control redemption), Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) or Condition 12 (Events of Default), all unmatured Coupons relating thereto (whether or not still attached) shall become void and no payment will be made in respect thereof.

(g) Payments on business days:

If the due date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Business Day in the place of presentation, the holder shall not be entitled to payment in such place of the amount due until the next succeeding Payment Business Day in such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of any such delay.

(h) Payments other than in respect of matured Coupons:

Payments of interest other than in respect of matured Coupons shall be made only against presentation of the relevant Notes at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (or in New York City if permitted by paragraph (c) above).

(i) Partial payments:

If a Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Note or Coupon presented to it for payment, such Paying Agent will endorse thereon a statement indicating the amount and date of such payment.

(k) Exchange of Talons:

On or after the maturity date of the final Coupon which is (or was at the time of issue) part of a Coupon Sheet relating to the Notes, the Talon forming part of such Coupon Sheet may be exchanged at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent for a further Coupon Sheet (including, if appropriate, a further Talon but excluding any Coupons in respect of which claims have already become void pursuant to Condition 13 (Prescription)). Upon the due date for redemption of any Note, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Note shall become void and no Coupon will be delivered in respect of such Talon.

11. Taxation

(a) Gross up:

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and the Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of a Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 11(b) (Taxing Jurisdiction)), unless the withholding or deduction of such taxes, duties, assessments, or governmental charges is required by law. In that event, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor, shall pay such additional amounts as will result in receipt by the Noteholders and the Couponholders after such withholding or deduction of such amounts as would have been received by them had no such withholding or deduction been required, except that no such additional amounts shall be payable in respect of any Note or Coupon presented for payment:

- (i) by or on behalf of a holder which is liable to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note or Coupon by reason of its having some connection with the Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 11(b) (Taxing Jurisdiction)) by which such taxes, duties, assessments or charges have been imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed other than the mere holding of the Note or Coupon; or
- (ii) where such withholding or deduction is imposed on a payment to or for an individual and is required to be made pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC or any other Directive implementing the conclusions of the ECOFIN Council meeting of 26-27 November 2000 on the taxation of savings income or any law of the EU or a non-Member State implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to, such Directive; or

- (iii) by or on behalf of a holder who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Note or Coupon to another Paying Agent (if any) in a Member State of the European Union; or
- (iv) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the holder of such Note or Coupon would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting such Note or Coupon for payment on the last day of such period of 30 days.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Terms and Conditions, any amounts to be paid on the Notes and the Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor, will be paid net of any deduction or withholding imposed or required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code (or any regulations thereunder or official interpretations thereof) or an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and another jurisdiction facilitating the implementation thereof (or any fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices implementing such an intergovernmental agreement) (any such withholding or deduction, a “FATCA Withholding”). Neither the Issuer nor any other person will be required to pay any additional amounts in respect of FATCA Withholding.

(b) Taxing Jurisdiction:

As used herein, Tax Jurisdiction means the United Kingdom and any political subdivision and any authority therein or thereof having the power to tax, and/or any other jurisdiction (and in each case any political subdivision and any authority therein or thereof having the power to tax) in which the Issuer and/or the Guarantor is incorporated, organised, or otherwise resident for tax purposes.

(c) Cross Default:

- (i) any other present or future Indebtedness for Borrowed Money (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of the Issuer, the Guarantor or a Material Subsidiary becomes due and repayable prior to its stated maturity by reason of any actual or potential event of default or the like (however described);

- (iii) default is made by the Issuer or the Guarantor or a Material Subsidiary in making any payment due under any present or future guarantee and/or indemnity given by it in relation to any Indebtedness for Borrowed Money (other than Non-Recourse Debt) of any other person on the due date for payment or, as the case may be, within any applicable grace period as originally provided;

provided that the aggregate amount of the relevant indebtedness, guarantees and indemnities in respect of which one or more of the events mentioned above in this Condition 12(c) have occurred equals or exceeds (without duplication) £25,000,000 or its equivalent in any other currency (as reasonably determined by the Trustee); or any Security, present or future, created or assumed by the Issuer, the Guarantor or a Material Subsidiary becomes enforceable and any step is taken to enforce it (including the taking of possession or the appointment of a receiver, administrative receiver, administrator, manager or other similar person) unless such step taken to enforce such Security is discharged within 60 days of such step being taken and provided that the aggregate amount of such Security being enforced equals or exceeds (without duplication) £25,000,000 or its equivalent in any other currency; or

(d) Security enforced:

- (ii) an administrative receiver, receiver, administrator, manager or other similar person is appointed in respect of the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Material Subsidiary or in respect of all or substantially all of the undertaking, assets and revenues of the Issuer, the Guarantor or such Material Subsidiary (otherwise than for the purposes of or pursuant to an amalgamation, reorganisation or restructuring whilst solvent on terms previously approved in writing by the Trustee or by an Extraordinary Resolution); or

(g) Winding up etc.:

terms previously approved in writing by the Trustee or by an Extraordinary Resolution or for a voluntary solvent winding-up of a Material Subsidiary where surplus assets are available for distribution and are distributed to the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or a Material Subsidiary); or

(h) Cessation of business etc.:

(i) Illegality:

it is or will become unlawful for the Issuer or the Guarantor to perform or comply with any one or more of its obligations under any of the Notes or the Trust Deed; or any event occurs that under the laws of any relevant jurisdiction has an analogous effect to any of the events referred to in any of the foregoing paragraphs; or

(j) Analogous Events:

(k) Guarantee etc.:

the Guarantee ceases to be, or is claimed by the Guarantor not to be, in full force and effect (other than in accordance with Condition 4(c) (Release of the Guarantor)), then the Trustee may at its discretion and shall, if so requested in writing by the holders of at least one fourth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes, or if so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution (subject to the Trustee having been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction, and, in the case of the happening of any of the events described in sub-paragraphs (b), (e), (h) and (j) (provided that for the purpose of this Trustee certification only, the analogous events referred to in sub-paragraph (j) relate only to the events described in sub-paragraphs (b), (e) and (h) above), only if the Trustee shall have certified in writing to the Issuer that such event is, in its opinion, materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders) by written notice addressed and delivered to the Issuer, declare the Notes to be immediately due and payable, whereupon they shall become immediately due and payable at their Early Termination Amount together with accrued interest (if any) without further action or formality. Notice of any such declaration shall promptly be given to the Noteholders.

13. Prescription

Claims against the Issuer and/or the Guarantor for principal shall become void unless the relevant Notes are presented for payment within ten years of the appropriate Relevant Date. Claims against the Issuer and/or the Guarantor for interest shall become void unless the relevant Coupons are presented for payment within five years of the appropriate Relevant Date.

14. Replacement of Notes, Coupons and Talons

If any Note, Coupon or Talon is lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the Specified Office of the Principal Paying Agent (and, if the Notes are then admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent in any particular place, a Paying Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system), subject to all applicable laws and competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system requirements, upon payment by the claimant of the expenses incurred in connection with such replacement and on such terms as to evidence, security, indemnity and otherwise as the Issuer and the Guarantor may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

15. Trustee and Agents

The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and for its relief from responsibility, including provisions relieving it from any obligation to take proceedings to enforce repayment unless indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction and to be paid its costs and expenses in priority to the claims of Noteholders. The Trust Deed also contains provisions pursuant to which the Trustee is entitled, inter alia, (i) to enter into business transactions with the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or any of its Subsidiaries and/or any related entity thereof and to act as trustee for the holders of any other securities issued or guaranteed by or relating to the Issuer, the Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries, (ii) to exercise and enforce its rights, comply with its obligations and perform its duties under or in relation to any such transactions or, as the case may be, any such trusteeship without regard to the interests of, or consequences for, the Noteholders or Couponholders, and (iii) to retain and not be liable to account for any profit made or any other amount or benefit received thereby or in connection therewith.

In the exercise of its powers and discretions under these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed, the Trustee will have regard to the interests of the Noteholders as a class and will not be responsible for any consequences for individual holders of Notes, Coupons or Talons as a result of such holders being connected in any way with a particular territory or taxing jurisdiction.

In acting under the Agency Agreement and in connection with the Notes and the Coupons and Talons, the Paying Agents and the Calculation Agent (if any) act solely as agents of the Issuer or, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Trustee and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Noteholders or Couponholders.

The Principal Paying Agent and its initial Specified Office is set out below. The initial Calculation Agent (if any) is specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Issuer reserves the right at any time, with the prior written consent of the Trustee, to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent or Calculation Agent and to appoint a successor principal paying agent or calculation agent and additional or successor paying agents;

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT:

- (a) the Issuer shall at all times maintain a Principal Paying Agent; and
- (b) the Issuer shall at all times maintain a paying agent in an EU member state that will not be obliged to withhold or deduct tax pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC or any other Directive implementing the conclusions of the ECOFIN Council meeting of 26-27 November 2000; and
- (c) if a Calculation Agent is specified in the relevant Final Terms, the Issuer shall at all times maintain a Calculation Agent; and
- (d) if and for so long as the Notes are admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system which requires the appointment of a Paying Agent in any particular place, the Issuer shall maintain a Paying Agent having its Specified Office in the place required by such competent authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notice of any appointment of, or change in, any of the Paying Agents or in their Specified Offices shall promptly be given to the Noteholders.

16. Meetings of Noteholders; Modification and Waiver

(a) Meetings of Noteholders:

The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of Noteholders to consider matters relating to the Notes, including the modification of any provision of these Conditions or the Trust Deed. Any such modification may be made if sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a meeting may be convened by the Issuer or the Trustee and shall be convened by the Trustee upon the request in writing of Noteholders holding not less than one-tenth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on an Extraordinary Resolution will be one or more Persons holding or representing one more than half of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes or, at any adjourned meeting, one or more Persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the principal amount of the Notes held or represented; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT Reserved Matters may only be sanctioned by an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Noteholders at which one or more Persons holding or representing not less than three-quarters or, at any adjourned meeting, not less than one quarter of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes form a quorum. Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Noteholders and Couponholders, whether present or not.

In addition, a resolution in writing signed by or on behalf of at least 90 per cent. of the Noteholders who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of Noteholders under the Trust Deed will take effect as if it were an Extraordinary Resolution. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Noteholders.

(b) Modification and waiver:

The Trustee may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders, to (i) any modification of these Conditions or the Trust Deed (other than in respect of a Reserved Matter) which is, in the opinion of the Trustee, proper to make if, in the opinion of the Trustee, such modification will not be materially prejudicial to the interests of Noteholders, (ii) any modification of these Conditions and the Notes or the Trust Deed that is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or to correct an error which, in the opinion of the Trustee, is proven, and (iii) any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach, of any of the provisions of these Conditions or the Trust Deed (other than a proposed breach or breach relating to the subject of a Reserved Matter) that is in the opinion of the Trustee not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders. Any such modification, authorisation or waiver shall be binding on the Noteholders and the Couponholders and, if the Trustee so requires, such modification, authorisation or waiver shall be notified to the Noteholders as soon as practicable in accordance with Condition 18 (Notices).

(c) Substitution:

The Trust Deed contains provisions under which any Subsidiary of the Issuer or its successor in business or the Guarantor or its successor in business may, without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders, assume the obligations of the Issuer (or of any previous substitute under this Condition 16(c)) as principal debtor under the Trust Deed and the Notes. If the Issuer shall determine that any Subsidiary of the Issuer or its successor in business or the Guarantor or its successor in business shall become the principal debtor (in such capacity, the “Substituted Debtor”), the Issuer shall give not less than 30 nor more than 45 days’ notice, in accordance with Condition 18 (Notices), to the Noteholders of such event and, immediately on the expiry of such notice, the Substituted Debtor shall become the principal debtor in respect of the Notes and the Coupons in place of the Issuer and the Noteholders and the Couponholders shall thereupon cease to have any rights or claims whatsoever against the Issuer in its capacity as Issuer of the Notes PROVIDED THAT:

- (i) the Trustee is satisfied that the interests of the Noteholders will not be materially prejudiced by the substitution,
- (ii) the Issuer and the Guarantor (unless the Guarantor or its successor in business is the Substituted Debtor) shall have entered into an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee substantially in the form of the Guarantee in respect of the obligations of such Substituted Debtor; and
- (iii) certain conditions specified in the Trust Deed are fulfilled.

No Noteholder or Couponholder shall, in connection with any substitution, be entitled to claim any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence thereof for such Noteholder or (as the case may be) Couponholder except to the extent provided for in Condition 11 (Taxation) (or any undertaking given in addition to or substitution for it pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Deed).

In the event of such substitution as is referred to in this Condition 16(c), references in these Conditions to the Issuer shall be read as references to the Substituted Debtor.

17. Enforcement

The Trustee may, at any time, at its discretion and without further notice, institute such proceedings against the Issuer and/or the Guarantor as it thinks fit to enforce any obligation, condition or provision binding on the Issuer and/or the Guarantor under these Conditions or under the Trust Deed in respect of the Notes, but shall not be bound to do so unless:

- (a) it has been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution or it has been so requested in writing by the holders of at least one fourth of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes; and
- (b) it has been indemnified and/or secured and/or prefunded to its satisfaction.

No Noteholder or Couponholder shall be entitled to institute proceedings directly against the Issuer unless the Trustee, having become bound to proceed as aforesaid, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing.

18. Notices

(a) Valid Notices:

Notices to the Noteholders shall be valid if published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times) or, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of first publication (or if required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the first date on which publication shall have been made in all the required newspapers).

(b) Other Methods:

Notwithstanding paragraph (a) above, the Trustee may approve some other method of giving notice to the Noteholders if, in its opinion, that other method is reasonable having regard to market practice then prevailing and to the requirements of any stock exchange on which Notes are then listed and PROVIDED THAT notice of that other method is given to the Noteholders in the manner required by the Trustee.

(c) Couponholders:

Couponholders shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to the Noteholders.

19. Rounding

For the purposes of any calculations referred to in these Conditions (unless otherwise specified in these Conditions or the relevant Final Terms), (a) all percentages resulting from such calculations will be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 per cent. being rounded up to 0.00001 per cent.), (b) all United States dollar amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest cent (with one half cent being rounded up), (c) all Japanese Yen amounts used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded downwards to the next lower whole Japanese Yen amount, and (d) all amounts denominated in any other currency used in or resulting from such calculations will be rounded to the nearest two decimal places in such currency, with 0.005 being rounded upwards.

20. Further Issues

The Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders create and issue further securities either having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the first payment of interest on them) and so that such further issue shall be consolidated and form a single series with the outstanding securities of any series (including the Notes) or upon such terms as the Issuer may determine at the time of their issue. References in these Conditions to the Notes include (unless the context requires otherwise) any other securities issued pursuant to this Condition and forming a single series with the Notes. Any further securities forming a single series with the outstanding securities of any series (including the Notes) constituted by the Trust Deed or any deed supplemental to it shall, and any other securities may (with the consent of the Trustee), be constituted by the Trust Deed. The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening a single meeting of the Noteholders and the holders of securities of other series where the Trustee so decides.

21. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

(a) Governing law:

The Notes, the Trust Deed, the Coupons and the Talons and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them, are governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

(b) English courts:

The courts of England have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute (a “Dispute”) arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the Trust Deed, Coupons or Talons (including a dispute relating to the existence, validity or cancellation of the Notes or any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the Trust Deed, Coupons or Talons) or the consequences of their nullity.

(c) Appropriate forum:

Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor agrees that the courts of England are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any Dispute and, accordingly, that they will not argue to the contrary.

22. Adjustment of Rate of Interest for Fixed Rate Notes and Floating Rate Notes

Where Step Up Rating Change and/or Step Down Rating Change is specified as applicable in the relevant Final Terms, the following terms relating to the Rate of Interest for the Notes shall apply:

(i) The Rate of Interest payable on the Notes will be subject to adjustment in the event of a Step Up Rating Change or a Step Down Rating Change, as the case may be.

(ii) Subject to paragraphs (iv) and (vii) below, from and including the first Interest Payment Date following the date of a Step Up Rating Change, if any, the Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or the Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) shall be increased by the Step Up Margin.

(iii) Subject to paragraphs (iv) and (vii) below, in the event of a Step Down Rating Change following a Step Up Rating Change, with effect from and including the first Interest Payment Date following the date of such Step Down Rating Change, the Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or the Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) shall be decreased by the Step Up Margin back to the initial Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or the initial Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes).

(iv) If a Step Up Rating Change and, subsequently, a Step Down Rating Change occur during the same Interest Period, the Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or the Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) shall be neither increased nor decreased as a result of either such event.

(v) If the rating designations employed by any Rating Agency are changed from those which are described in the definition of “Investment Grade”, or of “Non-Investment Grade” or if a rating is procured from a Substitute Rating Agency, the Issuer shall determine, with the agreement of the Trustee, the rating designations of such Rating Agency or Substitute Rating Agency (as appropriate) as are most equivalent to the prior rating designations of the relevant Rating Agency and this provision shall be construed accordingly.

(vi) The Issuer will cause the occurrence of a Step Up Rating Change or a Step Down Rating Change giving rise to an adjustment to the Rate of Interest payable on the Notes pursuant to this Condition to be notified to the Trustee and the Principal Paying Agent and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 18 (Notices) as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of such Step Up Rating Change or Step Down Rating Change, but in no event later than the fifth London Business Day thereafter.

(vii) Only the first Step Up Rating Change (if any) and the first Step Down Rating Change (if any) shall give rise to an adjustment to the Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) payable on the Notes.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES IN GLOBAL FORM

Clearing System Accountholders

Each Global Note will be in bearer form. Consequently, in relation to any Tranche of Notes represented by a Global Note, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to “Noteholder” are references to the bearer of the relevant Global Note which, for so long as the Global Note is held by a common depositary, in the case of a CGN, or a common safekeeper, in the case of an NGN for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or, as the case may be, common safekeeper.

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Note (each an “Accountholder”) must look solely to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or such other relevant clearing system (as the case may be) for such Accountholder’s share of each payment made by the Issuer or the Guarantor to the bearer of such Global Note and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Note. The extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under the Global Note will be determined by the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and any other relevant clearing system from time to time. For so long as the relevant Notes are represented by the Global Note, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against the Issuer or the Guarantor in respect of payments due under the Notes and such obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor will be discharged by payment to the bearer of the Global Note.

Exchange of Temporary Global Notes

Whenever any interest in a Temporary Global Note is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note, the Issuer shall procure:

- (a) in the case of first exchange, the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Note, duly authenticated and, in the case of an NGN, effectuated, to the bearer of the Temporary Global Note; or
- (b) in the case of any subsequent exchange, an increase in the principal amount of such Permanent Global Note in accordance with its terms, in each case in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates issued by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and received by the Paying Agent against presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Note to or to the order of the Paying Agent within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Conditions applicable to Global Notes

Each Global Note will contain provisions which modify the Terms and Conditions of the Notes as they apply to the Global Note. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Note will be made against presentation and (in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Note to or to the order of any Paying Agent and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of the Issuer in respect of the Notes. On each occasion on which a payment of principal or interest is made in respect of the Global Note, the Issuer shall procure that in respect of a CGN the payment is noted in a schedule thereto and in respect of an NGN the payment is entered pro rata in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg. For the purpose of any payments made in respect of a Global Note, the relevant place of presentation shall be disregarded in the definition of “Payment Business Day” set out in Condition 2 (Interpretation).

Exercise of put option: In order to exercise the option contained in Condition 9(e) (Redemption at the option of Noteholders) or Condition 9(f) (Change of control redemption), the bearer of the Permanent Global Note must, within the period specified in the Conditions for the deposit of the relevant Note and put notice, give written notice of such exercise to the Paying Agent specifying the principal amount of Notes in respect of which such option is being exercised. Any such notice will be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn.

Exercise of call option: In order to exercise the options contained in Condition 9(c) (Redemption at the option of the Issuer) while such Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note, the Issuer shall give notice to the Noteholders within the time limits set out in and containing the information required by the Conditions, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of Notes drawn in the case of a partial exercise of an option and accordingly no drawing of Notes shall be required. In the event that any option of such Issuer is exercised in relation to some only of the Notes, the Permanent Global Note may be redeemed in part in the principal amount specified by the Issuer in accordance with the Conditions and the Notes to be redeemed will not be selected as provided in the Conditions but in accordance with the rules and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in principal amount, at their discretion).

Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 18 (Notices), while all the Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note (or by a Permanent Global Note and/or a Temporary Global Note) and the Permanent Global Note is (or the Permanent Global Note and/or the Temporary Global Note are) deposited with or a common depository for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system or a common safekeeper, notices to Noteholders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and, in any case, such notices shall be deemed to have been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 18 (Notices) on the date of delivery to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, except that, for so long as such Notes are admitted to trading on the main market of the London Stock Exchange the notice requirements of the UK Listing Authority and the London Stock Exchange shall be complied with.

DESCRIPTION OF THE ISSUER

Introduction

The Issuer was incorporated and registered in England and Wales on 11 March 1991 with registration number 2590560 under the Companies Act 1985 as a private limited company with the name of Offer letter Limited. On 4 November 1991, the Issuer changed its name to National Express Limited. On 20 October 1992, the Issuer re-registered as a public limited company and changed its name to its current name of National Express Group PLC. In December 1992, the Issuer's ordinary shares were listed on the London Stock Exchange and admitted to trading on the Official List. The Issuer operates under the commercial name of National Express. The Issuer's registered office and principal place of business is at National Express House, Birmingham Coach Station, Mill Lane, Digbeth B5 6DD and its telephone number is +44 (0)845 0130130.

Business

The Issuer and its subsidiaries (the "Group" or "National Express Group") are a leading international public transportation group, with bus, coach and rail services in the UK, Continental Europe, North Africa, North America and the Middle East.

The National Express Group employs approximately 44,000 employees and operates over 27,000 vehicles on four continents. More than 867 million passenger journeys per year are made on National Express Group's bus, train, light rail and express coach operations.

The National Express Group's core operations today are comprised of its UK Bus division, UK Coach division, Rail division (which comprises operations in UK and Germany), North American division (comprising school bus and transit businesses), Spanish and Moroccan bus and coach division and urban bus operations in the Middle East.

UK Bus

The National Express Group's UK Bus business operates over 1,680 buses, carrying approximately 263 million passengers a year, and employs approximately 5,300 people in the West Midlands and Dundee. The Group also operates the Midland Metro, the West Midlands' light rail service. The operations of the UK Bus business comprise the following:

- National Express West Midlands is the largest bus operator in the West Midlands and one of the UK's largest urban bus networks outside London. It serves the major cities and towns in the West Midlands region including Walsall, Wolverhampton, Birmingham, Solihull, West Bromwich, Dudley and Coventry. National Express West Midlands employs around 4,800 people, including 3,600 drivers, and carries just less than three quarters of a million passengers per day on a modern fleet of approximately 1,530 vehicles across nearly 200 routes.
- Dundee operates a comprehensive network of high frequency local bus services within the city of Dundee and in the surrounding area, and owns a fleet of around 120 buses and coaches.
- Midlands Metro is a light-rail link that runs seven days a week between Wolverhampton and Birmingham city centres and offers an integrated ticketing service with National Express's bus operations in the West Midlands. The business employs around 160 people, of whom around 50 are tram drivers.

In the 2015 financial year, the UK Bus business generated £286.4 million of continuing revenue (14.9 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue) and £37.5 million of normalised operating profit (19.4 per cent. of the Group's continuing normalised operating profit) with like-for-like commercial revenue growth of 3 per cent. compared to the 2014 financial year.

UK Coach

National Express is the largest operator of scheduled coach services in the UK. The business operates high frequency services linking over 900 destinations across the country, providing approximately 29 million passenger journeys each year, and employs approximately 1,500 people. The UK Coach business provides transport services to major venues across the UK, and for major events such as concerts and sporting fixtures. The UK Coach business comprises three component parts:

- National Express Coach operates a network of scheduled coach services to over 900 destinations in the UK (including all major airports), with the majority being operated through third-party operators.
- Eurolines UK is part of a group of independent coach companies (including the ALSA Group S.L.U. ("ALSA") in Spain), who between them operate Europe's largest regular coach network. This network connects over 500 destinations, covering Europe and parts of North Africa.
- Kings Ferry, provides luxury coach hire and commuter coach services in London and surrounding counties such as Kent, Sussex, Surry and now Somerset. Utilising their fleet of approximately 70 vehicles and their network of third-party operators the business transports around 1,200 passengers per day.

In the 2015 financial year, the UK Coach business generated £281.2 million of continuing revenue (14.6 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue) and £32.3 million of normalised operating profit (16.7 per cent. of the Group's continuing normalised operating profit). In the same year, like-for-like passenger volume in the division increased approximately 2 per cent. from the 2014 financial year; overall like-for-like revenue from the Group's National Express Coach operations increased approximately 2 per cent. from the 2014 financial year.

Rail

National Express operates the industry-leading c2c branded rail franchise which serves London and South Essex. It is an important commuter route serving 26 stations on the line out of Fenchurch Street Station, London. In December 2015, the Group launched its first German rail franchise, Rhine Munster Express ("RME"), which carried over 10 million passengers during the first six months of operation.

In the 2015 financial year, the Rail business generated £168.4 million of continuing revenue (8.8 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue) and £0.6 million of continuing normalised operating profit (0.3 per cent. of the Group's continuing normalised operating profit). In the same year, like-for-like passenger volume in the division increased approximately 5.3 per cent. from the 2014 financial year and like-for-like revenue from the UK rail business increased approximately 11.1 per cent. from the 2014 financial year.

In 2015, c2c retained its position as the most punctual UK rail franchise with an annual average of 97.1 per cent. service punctuality and was awarded a five-star rating by the European Foundation for Quality Management ("EFQM") for a second successive assessment, which remains an important credential for bidding. c2c provided approximately 38 million passenger journeys in 2015 and employs approximately 600 people.

The mobilisation of the Group's second German rail franchise is underway. The first of two contracts for the Rhine Rhur Express ("RRX") will commence in June 2019 with the second contract starting in December 2020.

North America

The National Express Group's North American business has two areas of activity: student transportation (school bus) and transit services. National Express is the second largest player in the North American school bus market with a 13 per cent. share of the outsourced school bus market. The division operates approximately 22,500 school buses and employs approximately 27,000 people. Trading primarily under the brands Durham School Services in the United States and Stock Transportation in Canada, the North American bus division operates in 36 states in the U.S. and four provinces in Canada, with a portfolio of around 500 contracts across North America.

The division operates on a contract basis with local school boards and contracts will typically cover the academic year, meaning that there are only limited operations during the summer months during which time a large number of the buses are not used and the drivers are not employed. Contracts typically have a life of three to five years, with National Express achieving strong contract retention rates (97 per cent. in the 2016/17 school bid season).

The division's transit services offer its clients solutions for the following transportation needs:

- Fixed-route public transit;
- Commuter and express transit service;
- Paratransit and "dial-a-ride" demand-response services;
- Shuttle services for colleges, universities, airports and private companies;
- Transit management; and
- Fleet and asset maintenance.

In addition, the division made a strategic acquisition of a planning and scheduling software business in the paratransit market, providing it with a market-leading bespoke technology platform for its transit business, strengthening its credentials in this market.

In the 2015 financial year, the North American division generated £683.2 million of continuing revenue (35.6 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue) and £66.8 million of normalised operating profit (34.5 per cent. of the Group's continuing normalised operating profit), and overall like-for-like revenue in the North American division increased approximately 4 per cent. from the 2014 financial year on a constant currency basis.

Spain and Morocco

The National Express Group is Spain's leading private operator of coach and bus services. The division provides around 291 million passenger journeys per annum and employs over 7,800 people. It also operates urban bus and coach services in Morocco.

The division is comprised of the integrated businesses of ALSA, which was acquired by the Group in December 2005, and Continental Auto S.L.U. ("Continental Auto"), which was acquired by the Group in October 2007. The business also includes the operation of service stations, a fuel distribution business and provision of other transport related services in Spain.

ALSA has two major businesses: a concession-based coach transportation service, operating national, intercity services and also regional services; and urban bus services contracted to local municipal authorities. ALSA's long distance coach operations, which are awarded on a 10-15 year, exclusive basis, receive no subsidy and take revenue risk in return for flexibility over the number of services operated and a regulated maximum fare. Regional coach operations are likewise long-term concession services which may in addition be subsidised by the autonomous governments. Urban bus operations are mainly operated under programme contracts with city councils and transport consortia.

In the 2015 financial year, Spain and Morocco generated £502.2 million of continuing revenue (26.2 per cent. of the Group's total continuing revenue) and £71.5 million of normalised operating profit (37.0 per cent. of the Group's continuing normalised operating profit), with a total divisional revenue growth (compared to the 2014 financial year) of 3.6 per cent. on a constant currency basis.

Key Strengths

The Board believes that the Group's diverse international portfolio of cash generative businesses comprises well-established operations in stable markets with good management teams and access to growth opportunities. The Group's three-part strategy aims to build shareholder value by delivering consistent progress in the Group's core divisions, generating superior cash and returns, and creating profits from new and existing, generally capital-light markets. The Group's key strengths can be summarised as follows:

- A diverse international portfolio of businesses both by geography and by mode with no one contract contributing more than 4 per cent. of Group operating profit and with lower geographical and regulatory exposure to any one market;
- Strong market share and leading positions in many of the markets in which the Group operates;
- Deep understanding of, and expertise in, managing regulated concessions;
- Strong recurring revenue streams from perpetuity businesses and established contract markets, with around 65 per cent. of Group revenues secured through contracts and concessions;
- Strong free cash flow generation helping to drive organic growth and position the Group for growth in new markets; and
- Differentiated strategy through the Group's focus on operational excellence, which looks to deliver consistent service performance, leading to revenue growth, and continuous cost efficiency improvement, generating better margins, profit and cash.

Ability to manage its operations effectively through adverse trading conditions

Whilst the Group is not immune to the challenging trading conditions affecting the transportation industry or wider economy as a whole, the Board believes that the Group manages itself in a way that enables it to adapt its operations to prevailing conditions.

The innovative digital marketing approach of the UK Coach business is being complemented with new partnership contracts to both deliver its services more effectively to existing customers and reach new markets. Through its active pricing strategy, revenue is optimised by responding to changing market conditions.

The Board believes that the emphasis on partnership by the UK Bus business is working. In 2015, a five-year 'Bus Alliance' was signed with West Midlands Integrated Transport Authority, enabling local authority funding to complement UK Bus' record investment in new buses during the 2015 financial year. This partnership approach is a key driver for delivering a combination of superior service standards and customer offering together with profitable growth.

In Spain, ALSA is the market leader in urban and inter-urban bus and coach services, with a high level of contracted mileage and organic growth opportunities in North Africa, where ALSA is operating in four cities in Morocco. Over the last two years ALSA has faced intense competition on its rail-competed long-distance routes; however, through the roll out of its revenue management system to over 200 flows that compete directly with the discounted RENFE (rail services company owned by the Spanish government), ALSA saw growth in both revenue and passenger volume during 2015 financial year.

The North American division employs an 'up or out' strategy to exit contracts which do not meet the Group's strict minimum financial returns criteria. The business has strong customer relationships with contract retention rates of 97 per cent. on contracts that meet the minimum criteria, whilst 92 per cent. of customers are willing to recommend National Express on the basis of quality of service, safety and value.

In 2015, c2c retained its position as the most punctual UK rail franchise with an annual average punctuality of 97.1 per cent. and was awarded a five-star rating by the EFQM for a second successive assessment, which remains an important credential for bidding. This success and its reputation for excellence has helped National Express to drive revenue growth in c2c, as well as growth in new rail markets, for example, with the launch of its first German rail services on the RME network in December 2015 and success in securing a further €1 billion of future revenues with the award of two contracts to operate services on the RRX from June 2019.

Ability to deliver a strong operational capability across the business

One of the three key tenets of the Group's strategy is to deliver operational excellence, with the focus on driving revenue growth and margin progression across the business by delivering excellent customer service. The Group's progress in embedding excellence across the Group has been recognised by leading accreditation bodies. c2c has had its five-star rating under the EFQM re-confirmed with a higher accreditation in 2015. UK Bus, UK Coach and ALSA all achieved four-star ratings in their initial assessments by the EFQM and are determined to emulate c2c's success. In 2015, the Group was presented with the prestigious British Safety Council Sword of Honour for its UK Coach operations. The North American Division also secured a Bronze Award in its first assessment from the Illinois Performance Excellence Center.

The Issuer believes that the Group continues to deliver excellent customer service. The Group's customer satisfaction ratings are often market-leading. During the course of 2015 recognition was achieved across the Group: UK Coach was recognised as the most trusted ground transportation brand in the UK Institute of Customer Service's annual survey for the third year running; UK Bus secured its highest ever customer satisfaction scores in the independent Transport Focus survey; c2c had the highest customer satisfaction scores for reliability and punctuality in London and South East transport franchises; in the Group's North American School Bus business 92 per cent. of customers said that they would recommend it on the basis of its service, safety and value; and ALSA achieved its best score in five years in the annual independent Customer Service Index survey conducted by GFK (the market research institute).

Under a new Group Digital Officer, the Group is harnessing new technology and is seeking to enhance customer service and operate more efficiently. Targeted digital marketing, for example, has already delivered results in UK Coach and c2c, with an increase in off-peak travel particularly benefiting from this approach and this approach is now being rolled out to UK Bus and Spain. c2c also pioneered industry-leading innovations, such as the personal performance promise supported by Automatic Delay Repay, personalised performance reports and a flexible season ticket for smartcard holders aimed at part-time commuters. The introduction of these new technologies helps to create personalised and tailored relationships with the Group's customers, helping to drive innovation and service efficiency so the Group can better target customer needs. New technology also enables the Group to improve safety performance, which can generate substantial cost savings, and introduce more dynamic ticket pricing engines to effectively counter competition from other public transport operators.

Achieving margin improvement

The Group's operating profit margin of 10.1 per cent. in financial year 2015, exceeds the margin of other public transport operators within its peer group, with market-leading positions in Spain and Morocco, North America and UK Coach. This has been achieved through a clear focus on operational performance and an efficient cost base. The Group has delivered cost savings, removed unprofitable mileage, secured global procurement savings and ensured that capacity has adapted to meet demand.

Competition

The Group's businesses compete in numerous geographic markets and face competition not only from other transport operators but also from other modes of transport.

In the UK, the Group's bus, coach and rail operations all face competition from the car and other forms of public transport.

The result of a deregulated UK bus market is that in some areas there also exists head-to-head competition between transport companies operating overlapping bus networks. Over time, mergers and acquisition have led to a situation where nearly two thirds of services in the UK are operated by five major UK-based public transport providers, namely FirstGroup plc ("FirstGroup"), Go-Ahead Group plc ("Go-Ahead"), National Express, Stagecoach ("Stagecoach Group") and Arriva (purchased by Deutsche Bahn AG in 2010).

National Express is the largest UK and Spanish coach operator, but is subject to competition from other operators, particularly in the UK, in relation to airport and intercity routes.

Unlike the UK bus and coach industries where competition is mainly felt at the operational level, most competition in relation to the UK rail industry takes place in relation to the award of franchises, when operators submit lowest subsidy or highest premium bids to operate a complete package of services on an area of the rail network.

In North America, the Group's operations cover a very wide geographic area comprising around 20,000 routes under approximately 500 separate contracts. Competition is provided by a small number of larger operators plus numerous smaller, locally owned operators. The competitors can also include school districts themselves (which are governmental bodies) as many operate their own buses in-house. Although the number of competitors is large, the actual competition for any single contract is limited due to geographic restrictions, which means that an owner operator in one state will not bid for a contract in a neighbouring state as they will not have the resources to achieve this.

Strategy

The Group has built a diverse global business which is focussed on operational excellence, innovation, bolt-on acquisitions in its core markets and further global diversification. The Board's strategy to generate value is focused on three key areas:

1. Delivering operational excellence;
2. Generating superior cash and returns; and
3. Creating new business opportunities.

Delivering operational excellence

For National Express, operational excellence is achieved through delivering continuously improving services whilst ensuring a relentless focus on efficiency. The objective is for National Express to be known for both excellence in the quality of the Group's operations and for price leadership.

Getting the combination of price and quality right enables the Group to deliver on the vision of earning customers' lifetime loyalty, with passengers more likely to continue to use the Group's services above other choices because they are receiving a good service at a good price. Equally, contracting authorities or businesses are less likely to retender services or are more likely to award National Express new contracts if each business consistently delivers excellence. This focus on operational excellence should result in growth in both revenue and margins.

In the Group's UK and Spanish coach operations, more sophisticated revenue management systems have been introduced and the Board believes that they will significantly enhance the businesses' capabilities to actively manage pricing on a real time basis, helping to deliver incremental revenue and higher returns.

The Group's success in recent years has been rooted in operational excellence. It is also increasingly clear that future success depends on it. As the most recent successes in German rail and in Bahraini bus services demonstrate, a reputation for operational excellence has been crucial in winning contracts in new markets.

Superior cash and returns

National Express is focused on cash generation through capital efficiencies and close management of working capital, with free cash flow paying for dividends to shareholders, funding future growth and reducing debt. The Group has generated £443 million of free cash flow over the last three years alone.

The Group has a disciplined approach to investment, deploying capital where it will deliver the best returns. Margin and ROCE remain key areas of focus for further improvement in the coming years. In 2015, National Express invested £106 million on acquisitions and growth capital expenditure projects. Group operating profit margin was 10.1 per cent. in 2015.

A period of debt reduction and a successful programme to embed a strong and sustainable cash flow within the business has provided a firm financial platform allowing the Group to increase investment to capitalise on emerging growth opportunities.

Creating new business opportunities

The Board believes that the Group's portfolio of cash generative international bus, coach and rail businesses provides a stable and secure source of earnings and cash, which is utilised to fund further growth in attractive opportunities, both within its existing businesses and in new markets.

The principal opportunity for increased investment to deliver strong growth over the medium term is in North America, where there are excellent opportunities for growth given this market's highly fragmented nature and the continuing trend for conversions, with over 1,300 private school businesses in the United States. National Express has already demonstrated its ability to grow this business significantly in recent years and in the last 12 months made additional 'bolt-on' acquisitions, delivering management synergies, improved purchasing power and operational improvements. Some of these acquisitions have also opened up new markets for the business – for example, shuttle services – providing credentials in growing sectors.

During 2015, services began in two new markets. The Group's Bahraini bus services began in February and its German rail services in December. Both began successfully and demonstrate that operational excellence and working in partnership works internationally. These contracts are strengthening the Group's international reputation and opening further opportunities in local markets. For example, the new services in Bahrain are opening other contract opportunities within the Middle East where the Group believes that the prevailing fiscal climate is encouraging authorities to increasingly look at public transport as a cost effective investment.

German Rail continues to offer opportunities with a strong pipeline of potential bids across the country, as the liberalisation of the market continues. The Group is in the process of mobilising its second rail franchise in Germany, the RRX, which will begin operations in 2019. The Group was awarded the S-Bahn Nuremberg franchise, however, the award of the S-Bahn Nuremberg franchise to the Group continues to be subject to legal challenge and to discussion between the Group and the awarding authority.

The Group is also awaiting the outcome of its bid to operate the Manchester Metrolink light rail contract, with a decision expected by the end of 2016.

The Group will continue to consider opportunities to expand into new geographies and markets where it believes that its experience in delivering innovation and operational excellence can generate meaningful and sustainable long-term returns.

TAXATION

1. United Kingdom

The comments below are of a general nature based on current United Kingdom law and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC") practice (which may not be binding on HMRC and may be subject to change, sometimes with retrospective effect) and are not intended to be exhaustive. They describe only certain aspects of the United Kingdom withholding tax treatment of payments of interest in respect of the Notes. They do not deal with any other United Kingdom tax implications of acquiring, holding or disposing of Notes or Coupons. Prospective Noteholders or Couponholders should be aware that the particular terms of issue of any series of Notes as specified in the relevant Final Terms may affect the treatment of that and other series of Notes. The following is only a general guide and should be treated with caution. Prospective holders are strongly advised to seek independent advice. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Base Prospectus and is subject to any change in law that may take effect after such date.

Holders who may be liable to taxation in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom in respect of their acquisition, holding or disposal of the Notes or Coupons are particularly advised to consult their professional advisers as to whether they are so liable (and if so under the laws of which jurisdictions), since the following comments relate only to certain United Kingdom taxation aspects of payments in respect of the Notes and Coupons. In particular, holders should be aware that they may be liable to taxation under the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to payments in respect of the Notes or Coupons even if such payments may be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of taxation under the laws of the United Kingdom.

The references to "interest" in the comments below on United Kingdom withholding tax mean "interest" as understood in United Kingdom tax law. The comments do not take any account of any different definitions of "interest" which may prevail under any other law or which may be created by the terms and conditions of the Notes or Coupons or any related documentation.

UK withholding on interest paid by the Issuer

Interest may be paid by the Issuer on the Notes without withholding for or on account of UK tax so long as the Notes constitute "quoted Eurobonds" within the meaning of section 987 of the Income Tax Act 2007 ("ITA 2007"). They will do so provided they carry a right to interest and provided they are listed and continue to be listed on a recognised stock exchange within the meaning of section 1005 of the ITA 2007. The London Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange for these purposes. Securities will be treated as listed on the London Stock Exchange if they are included in the Official List by the FCA and are admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange.

In all other cases, interest paid by the Issuer on Notes will generally be paid subject to withholding on account of UK income tax at the basic rate (currently 20 per cent.), subject to the availability of reliefs or to any direction to the contrary from HMRC in respect of such relief as may be available pursuant to the provisions of any applicable double taxation treaty, and except that the withholding obligation is disapplied (unless HMRC direct otherwise) in respect of a payment which the Issuer reasonably believes is an excepted payment. For these purposes a payment will be an excepted payment if, inter alia:

- (i) the person beneficially entitled to the interest is a UK resident company;
- (ii) the person beneficially entitled to the interest is a non-UK resident company carrying on a trade in the UK through a permanent establishment which is within the charge to corporation tax as regards the interest;
- (iii) the payment is made to certain categories of recipient enjoying a special tax status (including charities and certain classes of pension funds); or
- (iv) a partnership consisting of such persons is beneficially entitled to the interest.

UK withholding on interest paid by the Guarantor

Depending on the correct legal analysis of payments made by the Guarantor as a matter of UK tax law, it is possible that payments by the Guarantor would be subject to withholding on account of UK tax at the basic rate (currently 20 per cent.), subject to any claim which could be made under applicable double tax treaties and except that any withholding would be disapplied (unless HMRC direct otherwise) in respect of a payment which the Guarantor reasonably believes is an excepted payment. For these purposes a payment will be an excepted payment if, inter alia:

- (i) the person beneficially entitled to the interest is a UK resident company;
- (ii) the person beneficially entitled to the interest is a non-UK resident company carrying on a trade in the UK through a permanent establishment which is within the charge to corporation tax as regards the interest;
- (iii) the payment is made to certain categories of recipient enjoying a special tax status (including charities and certain classes of pension funds); or
- (iv) a partnership consisting of such persons is beneficially entitled to the interest.

Even if the Notes constitute quoted Eurobonds (assuming the conditions set out above are met) this does not of itself necessarily mean that payments made by the Guarantor can be made without withholding for or on account of UK tax.

2. FATCA Withholding

Pursuant to certain provisions of U.S. law, commonly known as FATCA, a “foreign financial institution” may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign passthru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor believes that it is a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the United Kingdom) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Certain aspects of the application of these rules to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, is not clear at this time. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to 1 January 2019 and Notes issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be “grandfathered” for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the issuer). However, if additional notes (as described under “Terms and Conditions—Further Issues”) that are not distinguishable from these Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfather period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered hereby, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes and the Coupons, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Notes may be sold from time to time by the Issuer to any one or more of Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria, S.A., Banco Santander, S.A., Barclays Bank PLC, Bayerische Landesbank, BNP Paribas, CaixaBank, S.A., Commerzbank Aktiengesellschaft, HSBC Bank plc, Merrill Lynch International, MUFG Securities EMEA plc, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc and Wells Fargo Securities International Limited (the “Permanent Dealers”). However, the Issuer has reserved the right to sell Notes directly on its own behalf to dealers that are not Permanent Dealers (together with the Permanent Dealers, the “Dealers” and each a “Dealer”). The arrangements under which Notes may from time to time be agreed to be sold by the Issuer to, and purchased by, Dealers are set out in a Dealer Agreement dated 2 October 2015 (the “Dealer Agreement”) and made between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Permanent Dealers. Any such agreement will, inter alia, make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Notes, the price at which such Notes will be purchased by the Dealers and the commissions or other agreed deductibles (if any) payable or allowable by the Issuer in respect of such purchase. The Dealer Agreement makes provision for the resignation or termination of appointment of existing Dealers and for the appointment of additional or other Dealers either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular Tranche of Notes.

Reg. § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code) (the “TEFRA D Rules”), as specified in the Final Terms. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, including the TEFRA C and TEFRA D Rules.

Further, each Dealer has represented, warranted and undertaken in connection with each original issuance of Notes under the Programme, that it has not communicated, and will not communicate, directly or indirectly, with a prospective purchaser if such Dealer or such prospective purchaser is within the United States or its possessions and will not otherwise involve its United States office in the offer or sale of the Notes.

In addition, in respect of Notes issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules, each Dealer has represented, warranted and undertaken that:

- (a) except to the extent permitted under the TEFRA D Rules, (x) it has not offered or sold, and during the restricted period will not offer or sell, directly or indirectly, any Notes to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, and (y) such Dealer has not delivered and will not deliver within the United States or its possessions definitive Notes that are sold during the restricted period;

- (c) if such Dealer is a United States person, it is acquiring the Notes for purposes of resale, in connection with their original issuance under the Programme and, if such Dealer retains Notes for its own account, it will only do so in accordance with the requirements of U.S. Treas. Reg. § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(6) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code);
- (d) with respect to each affiliate of such Dealer that acquires Notes from such Dealer for the purposes of offering or selling such Notes during the restricted period, such Dealer either (x) repeats and confirms the representations and agreements contained in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) above on such affiliate's behalf or (y) agrees that it will obtain from such affiliate for the benefit of the purchaser of the Notes and the Issuer the representations, warranties and undertakings contained in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; and
- (e) with respect to any person other than an affiliate of such Dealer with whom such Dealer enters into a written contract, as defined in U.S. Treasury Regulation Section 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(4) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code), for the offer or sale during the restricted period of Notes, such Dealer will obtain from such non-affiliate for the benefit of the Issuer the representations, warranties and undertakings contained in sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Each Note issued in accordance with the TEFRA D Rules will bear the following legend:

ANY UNITED STATES PERSON (AS DEFINED IN THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA) WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(J) AND 1287(A) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Each Dealer has represented, warranted and undertaken that, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement, it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes, (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering or the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are part, as certified to the Paying Agent by such Dealer (or, in the case of a sale of a Tranche of Notes to or through more than one Dealer, by each of such Dealers as to the Notes of such Tranche purchased by or through it, in which case the Paying Agent shall notify each such Dealer when all such Dealers have so certified) within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and such Dealer will, prior to the confirmation of sale, have sent to each dealer to which it sells Notes during the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S) relating thereto a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of Notes comprising any Tranche, any offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

- (c) General compliance: it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to any Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Public Offer Selling Restriction Under the Prospectus Directive

In relation to each Member State of the European Union which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), each Dealer has represented and agreed that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the “Relevant Implementation Date”) it has not made and will not make an offer of Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to the public in that Relevant Member State except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Notes to the public in that Relevant Member State:

- (i) at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (ii) at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by the Issuer for any such offer; or
- (iii) at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive,

PROVIDED THAT no such offer of Notes referred to in (i) to (iii) above shall require the Issuer or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

In this provision and in this Base Prospectus generally, the expression an “offer of Notes to the public” in relation to any Notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Relevant Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State; the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in each Relevant Member State.

Japan

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended, the “Financial Instruments and Exchange Act”). Accordingly, each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed that it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell any Notes in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan (which term as used herein means any person resident of Japan, including any corporation or other entity organised under the laws of Japan) or to others for re-offering or re-sale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and other relevant laws and regulations of Japan.

General

Each Dealer has represented, warranted and undertaken that so far as it is aware, it has complied and will comply to the best of its knowledge with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or possesses, distributes or publishes this Base Prospectus, any Drawdown Prospectus or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at its own expense. Other persons into whose hands this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Notes or possess, distribute or publish this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms or any related offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

The Dealer Agreement provides that the Dealers shall not be bound by any of the restrictions relating to any specific jurisdiction (set out above) to the extent that such restrictions shall, as a result of change(s) or change(s) in official interpretation, after the date hereof, of applicable laws and regulations, no longer be applicable but without prejudice to the obligations of the Dealers described in the paragraph headed "General" above.

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services to the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or their affiliates in the ordinary course of business.

5. Significant/Material Adverse Change

There has been no significant change in the financial or trading position of the Issuer or the Group since 30 June 2016 and there has been no material adverse change in the prospects of the Issuer since 31 December 2015.

9. Material Contracts

Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor has entered into any contract outside the ordinary course of its business which could result in the Issuer or the Guarantor being under an obligation or entitlement that is material to any Issuer’s ability to meet its obligations to the holders of its Notes in respect of the Notes being issued or to the Guarantor’s ability to meet its obligations under the Guarantee.

10. Dealers' Investments

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
